Subject: Admission to the Court of Appeals of Georgia

Dear Ms. Miller,

Although we administered the oath to you for admission to practice in this Court in November 2008, we have not yet entered you into our system as duly admitted to practice in this Court. At the time you appeared to take the oath, we could not find evidence that one of the guarantors of your good character who signed your application was admitted to this Court. We asked you to obtain a record of the date of Ms. Hilton's admission or to provide us with the signature of another attorney admitted to practice in this Court. To date we have not received another signature. Please send it to us so that we can complete your admission to this Court.

Thank you.
