Re: Admission of William Charles Hayes, Esq. to the Court of Appeals of Georgia

To whom it may concern:

On February 15, 2011, I came to the Clerk's office to be admitted to the Court of Appeals. After submitting my application and $30 check, I was informed that one of the attorneys who had certified my application was not on the books as a member of the Court of Appeals. I was still administered the oath, signed the roll, and you retained my check. I was instructed to mail in another admissions application and that would complete the admissions process. The application is attached below. Please let me know if there are any other problems concerning my admission to the court.

Sincerely,

William Charles Hayes
