RE: Admission Application

Dear Mr. Ensign:

We have received your Admission In Absentia Application and your check #3554 in the amount of $30.00 in payment of the fees. Your receipt has been enclosed.

Your assistant has been notified that the Oath and Oath form must be replaced and the oath must be given by a judge of the Tennessee Courts rather than a Georgia Court since you have applied in absentia.

This office has gone ahead and processed the admission allowing you to send the oath replacement within the next seven (7) days. The application has been entered into our docket and you are now able to e-file your document(s).

If we do not receive the completed oath form after the seven (7) days, you will be removed from the rolls of attorneys able to practice in this Court.

Sincerely,

Holly K.O. Sparrow
