Dear Mr. Smith:

Your admission application for the Mass Swearing in scheduled for November 7, 2013, contained the name of an attorney (Matthew A. Marrone, Bar #153065) who had not been admitted to practice in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, and we were unable to complete the processing of your admittance for the Mass Ceremony. We will hold your application for a response. As soon as the name of a replacement attorney is received and verified in our office, we will complete the application processing of your admittance in preparation of the Mass Swearing-In. I have enclosed a copy of your admission application. Please submit the new information on the enclosed blank application, please ask the sponsor to sign, you sign and return both applications as soon as possible. We must have original signatures. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Castlen
