RE: Emergency Admission

Dear Mr. Brown:

According to my Chief Deputy Clerk, Patty Bender, on June 10, 2014, you were admitted to the Bar of the Court of Appeals on an emergency basis. In that verbal agreement, you stated you would forward a completed admission form, as well as, the $30.00 reduced expedited admission fee.

Perhaps it is an oversight that we have not received the admission form nor $30.00 admission fee as of the date of this letter.

When you send your completed admission application with sponsor signatures and payment, we will send you your certificate in the return mail. Your attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Castlen

CC: Steve Castlen

Mr. Brown was admitted on an "emergency basis" over the phone 6/10/14. Steve has allowed him to pay $30.00 only.

Mr. Brown states that he was admitted sometime around the date he was admitted to the State Bar (which I have confirmed was 12/23/1986). Margo has checked the admission cards as well as the roll books and couldn't locate him, nor does he have his certificate, only that he has filed many times before in this Court. I checked the cards only.

He will mail the admission form as well as the $30.00 and was advised we would issue his certificate when this was received. I did not enter an admission date on the docket.

I did call Supreme Court afterwards to see if he was admitted to their Court and he was admitted 2/17/99.
