Dear Mr. Campbell:

We are in receipt of your application for Admission In Absentia. We cannot accept your application for the following reason:

In the Oath, you must have a judge of the appellate courts (in New York) administer the oath to you and that judge must sign the form. Any New York state judge is acceptable. After the oath has been administered and the form has been signed, please return your documents and your check to this Court for processing your admission.

I am also returning your check number 118040 drawn on BB&T in the amount of $30.00.

My apologies for the inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Castlen

In Absentia Admission Instructions

(a) The Admission Application; please type your bar number on the appropriate line at the top of the form and enter on the lines to the right, where and when you were sworn in to practice in the Georgia State Bar. Type your name (where requested) and type your complete mailing address. Sign on the signature line. Also, please have the Admission Application signed by two attorneys who are members of this Court and who can attest to your personal and professional character. Please have the signatories include their Georgia State Bar numbers.

✓(b) An oath to be administered to you by a judge of the appellate courts or court of record with spaces for your signed affirmation and that judge's attestation and exemplification. any NY State Judge is acceptable.

Please complete and return items (a) and (b) along with the admissions fee of $30.00. Please print on a piece of paper your name as you wish it to read on your certificate and include that with the returned items.

When we receive these items, we will prepare a certificate showing you are admitted to this Court on the date they are received and mail the signed certificate to you. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Clerk of Court.
