Re: Court of Appeals Admission Application

Dear Mr. Castlen:

I came into your office this morning for admission to the bar of the Court of Appeals. Due to a miscommunication, I did not have the necessary sponsor certifications for my applications. I was told that, because I came in and paid the admission fee in person, I could be sworn in over the phone and that your office would waive the $200 fee that is usually a part of that process. Time is a bit of an issue for me, because the State Court of Henry County has assigned me a case in your court. Although that case has not yet been docketed, I anticipate that it will be soon. Therefore, I would ask that someone contact me as soon as possible so that I can get sworn in and represent my client. I can be reached on my cell phone at (205) 394-1018 or on my office phone (770) 288-2558 ext. 307. You can also reach me by e-mail at chrisj@listerholt.com. I am enclosing my application and a copy of the receipt for the admission fee I paid this morning.

Best regards,

Christopher Jackson

Mr. Jackson was told he could complete his Admission Application, mail it in and he would be sworn-in over the phone. Since he has already paid, his certificate would be mailed and he would be added to the docket.

(Mr. Jackson <sup>did not have an</sup> Admission Application and was struggling to complete w/o sponsor certification when he arrived.)
