Dear Mr. Maley:

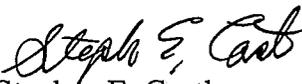

We are in receipt of your application for Admission In Absentia, We cannot accept your application for the following reason:

In the Oath, you must have a judge of the appellate court or court of record (in Tennessee) administer the oath and that judge must sign the form. After the oath has been administered and the form has been signed, please return your documents and your check to this Court for processing your admission.

I am also returning your check number 1080 drawn on Fifth Third Bank in the amount of $30.00.

My apologies for any inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Castlen
