Dear Ms. McGillicuddy:

We are returning your check #445956 from the Henry County Board of Commissioners in the amount of $30.00 payable to the Court of Appeals of Georgia dated May 5, 2016. A copy of your admission application and the check were mailed and received in this Court around May 5, 2016.

Since the admission application and check were mailed, our office phoned the Board of Commissioners to find out when you would arrive to be sworn-in. You were scheduled to be here on or around May 19, 2016. The check and your application were secured.

On May 19, 2016, you arrived to be sworn-in with a few other attorneys who may or may not have been with you. You had with you the original admission application with original signatures and you paid the $30.00 admission fee.

Today, the copy of the admission application and check received on May 5, 2016 were discovered in our safe. Hence, we are returning check number 445956 in the amount of $30.00 to you. My apologies for any inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Steve E. Castlen
