Dear Ms. Gathy:

Our records reveal that you submitted an Admission Application but was not able to attend the admissions on Tuesday, February 6, 2018. Per your recent email, you questioned if your $30 payment could be deferred and the admissions done another day when you could plan to be in the Atlanta area. We can offer the return of your payment since you were not able to attend the admission ceremony but we cannot defer the payment. Your bank account has been credited.

You may want to consider the Expedited Remote Admissions where you are sworn-in over the telephone. The fee for admission is $30.00. The fee for expedited/remote admission is $200.00. The total costs is $230.00. Please go to the Court's webpage at: www.gaappeals.us for further details. Details are listed under the Attorney Admission to the Court subtitle.

Otherwise, we welcome you to the Court open admissions every Tuesday and Thursday during business hours between 8:30 and noon and before scheduled oral arguments.

Sincerely,

Steve E. Castlen

Dear Mr. Castlen,

Unexpectedly I was unable to be there for the swearing in yesterday. Can I defer my payment and swearing in to another day when I am going to be in Atlanta?

To Whom It May Concern;

Please see the second page of the document attached for my application for admission to the Court of Appeals. I apologize about the earlier e-mail, please disregard, I was trying to be technologically efficient and failed miserably. I would like to be admitted during the YLD Leadership Academy's visit. I have already remitted payment. Please let me know if there is anything outstanding that I must do. I appreciate your help in this regard.

Thank you,

Kathryn Gathy
