Dear Mr. Hawkins:

A review of our records reveals that although you submitted an Application and paid the fees for Admission to practice in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, you did not attend the November 2, 2011 Mass Swearing in Ceremony. If you still wish to be admitted, you must be sworn in at the Court, sign the Attorney Roll after you have been administered the Oath, and pay the ten dollar ($10) reprinting fee for your certificate. If you do not do so by January 3, 2012, your application will be discarded.

Should you wish to apply later, you will have to resubmit the application with two signatures of members of the bar admitted to this Court and again pay the regular thirty dollar ($30) fee for admission.

If you have any questions, please call the clerk's office at the number above.

Sincerely,

Holly K. O. Sparrow
Clerk/Court Administrator

Ariata,

If Mr. Hawkins comes in before

January 12, 2012 - he will not need to repay the Admission fees.

Lola, Please do the following things.

You can take the notebooks and put the last one in your office. We will keep the others in the back of the file room on top of the card cabinet.

When an attorney has only one guarantor signature and he or she is told to obtain another and send it to us on a application form, please keep the application in the front pocket of the book until we receive the second signature. Also, do not enter his or her admission date into the system until we have the second signature.

Also do not give them the certificate. Mail it once we have the second signature.
