Dear Mr. Pendleton:

A review of our records reveals that although you submitted an application for admission to practice in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, you did not attend the November 6, 2009 mass swearing in ceremony. If you still wish to be admitted, you must be sworn in at the court, sign the court's roll book, and pay the ten dollar ($10) reprinting fee for your certificate. If you do not do so by January 6, 2009, your application will be discarded.

Should you wish to apply later, you will have to resubmit the application card with two signatures of members of the bar admitted to this court and again pay the regular thirty dollar ($30) fee for admission.

If you have any questions, please call the Clerk's office at the number above.

Sincerely,

Holly Sparrow
Deputy Administrator
