ATLANTA, SEP 21 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0017. GEORGIA LONG v. DUBLIN COMMUNITY HOSPITAL, INC. D/B/A FAIRVIEW PARK HOSPITAL, ET AL.

Georgia Long filed an application for interlocutory review of the order granting Dublin Community Hospital, Inc.'s motion to set aside a default judgment. Under OCGA § 5-6-34 (b), an application for interlocutory appeal must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 10 days after the certificate of immediate review is granted. In this case, the trial court granted the certificate of immediate review on August 24, 2000. Long filed her application more than 10 days later, on September 12, 2000. Therefore, Long's application is untimely, the Court lacks jurisdiction and the application is DISMISSED.

ATLANTA, OCT 17 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0026, A01I0028. ROYAL v. FERRELLGAS, INC. et al.; and vice versa.

Plaintiff Clara Royal seeks immediate review of an order granting, in part, a motion for summary judgment filed by the defendants collectively known as Ferrellgas, and also granting the separate motion for summary judgment filed by Phillips Electric, Inc. Royal has also filed a notice of appeal from the same order. Because the order referenced is subject to direct appeal, Royal's application for interlocutory appeal is improper and is otherwise superfluous. See Artis v. Gaither, 199 Ga. App. 114 (404 SE2d 322) (1991). Accordingly, Application No. A01I0026 is hereby DISMISSED.

The Ferrellgas defendants seek immediate review of the partial denial of its motion for summary judgment. Consideration of this application is rendered unnecessary by the applicants' filing of a cross appeal from the appeal filed by Royal. Accordingly, Application No. A01I0028 is hereby DISMISSED as superfluous.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, OCT 17 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0043. M. W. CARMICHAEL, INC., et al. v. RIVERS.

The applicants seek an interlocutory appeal from an order entered September 15, 2000, denying their motion for summary judgment. A certificate of immediate review was signed by the trial judge on September 22 and filed with the clerk on September 26, 2000. To be effective, however, a certificate of immediate review must be signed and filed within ten days of the entry of the order to which the certificate refers. Turner v. Harper, 231 Ga. 175, 176 (200 SE2d 748) (1973). Because the order complained of was not timely certified for immediate review, the applicants' submission is hereby DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, NOV -9 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0051. JOHN K. CARRUTHERS v. THE STATE.

John K. Carruthers filed an application for interlocutory appeal to this Court, allegedly from an order dismissing his motion for speedy trial and/or discharge and acquittal. Carruthers, however, has failed to include a copy of the order appealed from with his application. This Court ordered Carruthers on October 10, 2000, to supplement his application with a stamped "filed" copy of the order appealed from within ten days and instructed that if he did not cause such copy to be filed within the time allowed, the application would be dismissed. The time allowed to supplement the application has passed, and Carruthers has failed to file a copy of the order in this appeal. Accordingly, this application is hereby DISMISSED.

Carruthers has also filed a "Petition for Writ of Certiorari" to this Court in this case. The document is, in fact, a motion for this Court to obtain certain documents from the lower court. The request is rendered moot, since the application has been dismissed. The motion is accordingly hereby DENIED.

ATLANTA, NOV - 1 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0060. Begner v. State Ethics Commission

Alan Begner filed this application for interlocutory appeal seeking review of the trial court's order finding him in contempt. However, an order finding one in contempt of court is subject to direct appeal. OCGA § 5-6-34 (a) (2); In re Booker, 186 Ga. App. 614 (367 SE2d 850) (1988). Thus, this application must be DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction. See Artis v. Gaither, 199 Ga. App. 114 (404 SE2d 322) (1991).

W. L. Martin, Clerk

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, NOV -9 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0061. PATTEN v. THE STATE.

Matthew Patten filed this application for interlocutory appeal from the trial court's denial of his motion to dismiss or acquit pursuant to his demand for trial under OCGA § 17-7-170. The denial of such a motion, however, has been held to be directly appealable under OCGA § 5-6-34 (a). Hubbard v. State, 254 Ga. 694, 695 (333 SE2d 827) (1985). Patten has therefore pursued the wrong avenue of appeal. See generally Artis v. Gaither, 199 Ga. App. 114 (404 SE2d 322) (1991).

Although there is no basis for granting an interlocutory appeal under these circumstances, we note that in the event Patten had applied to this court for a discretionary appeal rather than for an interlocutory appeal, his application would be granted as a matter of course as required under OCGA § 5-6-35 (j). We therefore deem it appropriate to disregard Patten's certificate of immediate review as superfluous and to treat his application as the equivalent of an application for discretionary appeal under OCGA § 5-6-35. Because Patten's application meets all of the procedural requirements for a timely filed application for discretionary appeal under OCGA § 5-6-35 and because the order appealed from is directly appealable under OCGA § 5-6-34 (a), Patten's application is hereby granted pursuant to OCGA § 5-6-35 (j).¹

Patten shall have ten days from the date of this order to file his notice of appeal. The clerk of the superior court is directed to include a copy of this order in the record transmitted to this court.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

Clerk.

¹In the interest of clarity, we note that the procedure employed herein is available only in those cases where the order from which the appeal is sought is otherwise directly appealable under OCGA § 5-6-34 (a). Compare Artis v. Gaither, supra (dismissal of interlocutory appeal involving order directly appealable under OCGA § 9-11-56 (h) but not OCGA § 5-6-34 (a)). By its express terms, OCGA § 5-6-35 (j) applies only in those cases where the order complained of is "enumerated in subsection (a) of Code Section 5-6-34."

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA,

NOV 17 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0074. GEORGIA REAL ESTATE COMMISSION v. MARSHALL LEWIS ENGLISH.

Applicant Georgia Real Estate Commission filed this interlocutory application seeking appellate review of a superior court order upon judicial review of an administrative decision. The Georgia Administrative Procedure Act does not authorize appellate court review of superior court decisions arising thereunder unless the reviewing superior court has rendered a "final judgment." OCGA § 50-13-20. Therefore, the interlocutory appeal procedure set forth in OCGA § 5-6-34 (b) does not apply to cases such as this arising under the Georgia Administrative Procedure Act. Howell v. Harden, 231 Ga. 594, 595 (203 SE2d 206) (1974); (State Health Planning Review Board v. Piedmont Hospital, Inc., 173 Ga. App. 450, 451 (326 SE2d 814) (1985)). Accordingly, this interlocutory application is hereby DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, DEC -5 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0084. Johnson v. Stills

Gertrude Johnson filed an emergency application for discretionary review with the Georgia Supreme Court seeking review of several trial court decisions in an adoption proceeding. The Supreme Court transferred the case to this Court finding jurisdiction in adoption cases lies with this Court. This Court has docketed this case as an interlocutory application as the substance of the application is interlocutory. Since, the orders on appeal are not final, are not collateral, and do not come within the rare exception set forth in Waldrip v. Head, 272 Ga. 572 (1) (532 SE2d 380) (2000), a certificate of immediate review was required to confer jurisdiction upon this Court. OCGA § 5-6-34 (b). Johnson's failure to obtain a certificate of immediate review deprives this Court of jurisdiction to consider this application. Accordingly, this application is ordered DISMISSED.

ATLANTA,

NOV 28 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0088. LANIER DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATES, LLC v. MOUNTAINVIEW DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, INC., et al

Lanier Development Associates, LLC filed this application for interlocutory appeal from the trial court's October 17, 2000 order denying its motion for summary judgment. The trial court issued a timely certificate of immediate review on October 26, 2000. Mountainview Development Company, Inc. has filed a motion to dismiss the application on the basis that it is untimely.

The applicant filed its application for interlocutory review on November 17, 2000, twenty-two days after the certificate of immediate review was issued. OCGA § 5-6-34 (b) permits this Court to consider interlocutory appeals only where the application is made within ten days after the certificate of immediate review is entered. Because the applicant failed to file its application within this time frame, the application is untimely, and this Court is without jurisdiction to consider it. Graves v. Dean, 166 Ga. App. 186 (303 SE2d 751) (1983). Accordingly, Mountainview Development Company, Inc.'s motion to dismiss is GRANTED, and the application for interlocutory appeal is hereby DISMISSED.

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0097. WILLIE CHARLES MACK v. THE STATE.

Willie Charles Mack seeks interlocutory review of the superior court's denial of his double jeopardy plea in bar. A denial of a motion for a plea in bar on the basis of double jeopardy is directly appealable. Patterson v. State, 248 Ga. 875 (287 SE2d 7) (1982); Miller v. State, 204 Ga. App. 562, 563 (420 SE2d 12) (1992). Because the interlocutory appeal provisions have no application in cases subject to direct appeal, this petition for interlocutory review is hereby DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction. Artis v. Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, DEC 21 2000

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0108. Simmons v. Pirkle

Ray D. Simmons filed this application for interlocutory appeal seeking review of the trial court's non-final order granting Jeff Pirkle's motion for summary judgment and denying Simmons' motion. The order Simmons seeks to have reviewed was entered by the trial court on October 24, 2000. A timely certificate of immediate review was obtained on October 26, 2000. Simmons filed his application for interlocutory appeal with the Georgia Supreme Court on November 20, 2000. However, an interlocutory appeal application must be filed within 10 days after the grant of a certificate of immediate review. OCGA § 5-6-34 (b). Simmons' application was not filed until twenty-five days after the grant of the certificate of immediate review. Therefore, Simmons' application was untimely and this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider this application. Accordingly, this application is ordered DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, JAN 17 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0126. Hogencamp v. Griggs

William H. Hogencamp filed this interlocutory application seeking review of the trial court's denial of his motion for summary judgment. The order denying summary judgment was entered by the trial court on December 1, 2000. Hogencamp obtained a certificate of immediate review which was entered on December 14, 2000. This application was filed in this Court on December 28, 2000. A certificate of immediate review must be obtained within ten days of entry of the order sought to be appealed, and an application must be filed within ten days after entry of a timely certificate of immediate review. OCGA § 5-6-34 (b). In this case, the certificate of immediate review was not filed until 14 days after entry of the order sought to be appealed and this application was not filed until 14 days after entry of the certificate of immediate review. Thus, both the certificate of immediate review and this application are untimely and this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider this application. Accordingly, this application is ordered DISMISSED.

William L. Martin, III

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA,

JAN 25 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0133. DEBORAH MUSSER v. JOSEPH HURST ET AL.

Deborah Musser commenced this action against Joseph Hurst and their partnership, Atlanta Laser Supply, seeking the dissolution of the partnership, an accounting and an injunction. The superior court appointed an auditor to recommend a disposition of the partnership's assets and liabilities. The superior court adopted the auditor's report over the exceptions of both parties. Musser then filed the instant application as well as an application in the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court has previously held that a complaint seeking an accounting, dissolution of a partnership and an injunction is an equity action. Williams v. Tritt, 262 Ga. 173, 175 (415 SE2d 285) (1992). See also, Manry v. Hendricks, 192 Ga. 319 (15 SE2d 434) (1941) (holding that action for partnership accounting that was instituted after dissolution of the partnership was not an equity case within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court). But see Crocker v. Stevens, 210 Ga. App. 231 (435 SE2d 690) (1993) (in which Supreme Court transferred to this Court an appeal in a suit for dissolution of a corporation, injunction, and disposition of corporate assets).

Accordingly, as Ga. Const. 1983, Art. VI, Sec. VI, Par. III assigns the Supreme Court appellate jurisdiction over equity cases, this appeal is transferred to the Supreme Court.

ATLANTA,

JAN 30 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0138. TAYLOR v. GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES, ex rel., Phillip J. Brown.

Charlie Taylor seeks immediate review of an order denying his motion to dismiss a claim for child support. The order was entered on December 15, 2000. A certificate of immediate review was entered on January 8, 2001, and the application was filed on January 17, 2001. Because the trial court did not issue its certificate of immediate review within ten days as required under OCGA § 5-6-34 (b), Taylor's application is hereby DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction. Turner v. Harper, 231 Ga. 175, 176 (200 SE2d 748) (1973).

ATLANTA,

FEB 22 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0154. ALLSTATE INDEMNITY COMPANY ET AL v. MARY LOUISE CLARK.

Plaintiff Mary Louise Clark filed this action for equitable relief and tort damages against a number of defendants who filed separate motions for summary judgment. In an order filed January 11, 2001, summary judgment was granted in favor of defendant Wanda Byrd and the remaining motions for summary judgment were denied. Clark appealed the grant of summary judgment in favor of Byrd. Applicant-defendants Allstate Indemnity Company and Debra Hinds filed their cross appeal of the order, insofar as it denied their motion for summary judgment.

Applicant-defendants Allstate Indemnity Company and Debra Hinds seek interlocutory review of the denial of their motion for summary judgment. However, consideration of this application is rendered unnecessary by the applicants' filing of a cross appeal from the appeal filed by Clark. Therefore, this application is hereby DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, MAR - 1 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0158. OLLIE J. ADKINS ET AL v. LAVENUS WYNN ET AL

Lavenus Wynn filed a complaint for divorce against her husband, Enrique Davis, and named applicants Ollie J. Adkins, Clarice Trawick and Rosemary Richie as co-defendants, contending that her husband had transferred the marital residence to the applicants in order to defraud her and defeat her claim for alimony and equitable division of marital assets. The trial court entered a temporary order awarding Wynn custody of the parties' minor children, alimony, and child support. The order also temporarily enjoined the applicants from taking any action to evict Wynn from the residence pending the outcome of her divorce action. The applicants filed this petition seeking interlocutory review of this portion of the trial court's temporary order.

The Supreme Court has exclusive jurisdiction over appeals in divorce cases. Ga. Const. of 1983, Art. VI, Sec. VI, Par. III (6). Orders specifically relating to the parties' pending divorce are within the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. See, e.g., Bailey v. Bailey, 266 Ga. 832 (471 SE2d 213) (1996) (temporary alimony order in pending divorce proceeding); Jones v. Jones, 258

Ga. 353 (369 SE2d 478) (1988) (disqualification order in pending divorce proceeding); Bedingfield v. Bedingfield, 248 Ga. 91 (281 SE2d 554) (1981) (denial of motion to dismiss and temporary grant of child custody in pending divorce proceeding). Accordingly, this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider this application.¹ For the foregoing reasons, this appeal is ordered TRANSFERRED to the Supreme Court.

I certify that the above is a true extract from the minutes of the Court of Appeals of Georgia.

Will L. Clark, Clerk

¹Because we conclude that this appeal arises from a divorce action and thus jurisdiction lies in the Supreme Court, we do not reach the issue of whether the appeal was properly brought by interlocutory application, in which case it would be untimely filed under Supreme Court Rule 15 and Court of Appeals Rule 4; or whether the certificate of immediate review in the case may be ignored and the case treated as a discretionary appeal from a temporary injunction pursuant to an underlying divorce action. See OCGA §§ 5-6-34 (a) (4) and 5-6-35 (a) (2); Horton v. Kitchens, 259 Ga. 446 (2) (383 SE2d 871) (1989); Russo v. Manning, 252 Ga. 155 (312 SE2d 319) (1984).

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0160. ORTHODONTIC CENTERS OF GEORGIA, INC., ET AL. v. BENJAMIN

M. PRIDEMORE, JR., D. D. S., ET AL.

Orthodontic Centers of Georgia, Inc. and Orthodontic Centers of America, Inc. seek an interlocutory appeal from the superior court's order, denying their motion to vacate, modify or set aside default judgment, entered January 19, 2001. A certificate of immediate review was entered January 30, 2001. To be effective, a certificate of immediate review must be signed and filed within 10 days of the entry of the order to which the certificate refers. Turner v. Harper, 231 Ga. App. 175 (200 SE2d 748) (1973). In this case the certificate was not entered until 11 days after entry of the order to which it refers. Thus, the certificate is untimely and this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider this application.

Therefore, this application is ordered DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, MAR -7 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0171. JERRY PATTERSON v. THE STATE.

Jerry Patterson appealed to this Court for interlocutory review of the trial court's order denying his motions to suppress evidence in this prosecution for murder and other offenses. However, the Supreme Court has directed this Court to transfer to it "all cases in which either a sentence of death or of life imprisonment has been imposed upon conviction of murder, and all pre-conviction appeals in murder cases, whether or not timely notice was given by the district attorney as required by Unified Appeal, § II. A. 1., 246 Ga. at A-7." State v. Thornton, 253 Ga. 524 (322 SE2d 711) (1984). Therefore, Patterson's application is ordered TRANSFERRED to the Supreme Court.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, MAR -2 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0173. STEVE RAYMOND PONTIAC BUICK GMC TRUCK, INC. et al. v.
CAROLYN SANDERSON

Steve Raymond Pontiac Buick GMC Truck, Inc. and Stuart Schwartz have filed an application to appeal the denial of their motion for summary judgment. The trial court issued a certificate of immediate review on December 21, 2000. The Clerk of Court received the application on December 29, 2000 but could not docket the application because the applicants had not included the filing fee. OCGA § 5-6-4. The Clerk of Court received the filing fee and docketed the application on February 22, 2001. However, an application for interlocutory appeal is valid only if filed within 10 days of the date a timely certificate of immediate review is entered in the court below. OCGA § 5-6-34 (b). Since the applicants failed to accomplish the filing of their application for interlocutory appeal within the time provided by law, the application is hereby dismissed as untimely.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, APR 6 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0193. MARQUITTA L. PORTMAN v. HONORABLE GEORGE H. KREEGER et al.

Marquitta L. Portman brought suit against six of the judges of the Cobb County Superior Court, the Clerk of the Cobb County Superior Court, Portman's former attorney, her ex-husband, her ex-husband's girlfriend, and her ex-husband's attorney. In six orders, the superior court granted motions to dismiss of all the defendants. Portman then filed this interlocutory application from those orders.

This Court, however, does not have jurisdiction to consider this application. The interlocutory appeal procedure is reserved for those rulings that are not otherwise subject to direct appeal. OCGA § 5-6-34 (b); see also Artis v. Gaither, 199 Ga. App. 114 (404 SE2d 322) (1991); compare Southeastern Security Ins. Co. v. Empire Banking Co., 268 Ga. 450 (490 SE2d 372) (1997). The superior court's orders dismissing all the defendants left nothing to be decided in this case. Thus, Portman was required to file a direct appeal, not an interlocutory application, from these decisions. See Wright v. Swint, 224 Ga. App. 417 (480 SE2d 878) (1997) (order dismissing all defendants is subject to direct appeal).

Accordingly, this application is hereby DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction.

ATLANTA, APR 5 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0215. WHITE, III v. SUNTRUST BANK, WEST GEORGIA, N.A.

Kenneth E. White, III has filed an application for interlocutory appeal seeking review of an order denying his motion to set aside a previous order denying a motion to recuse the probate court judge. The superior court judge hearing the matter certified the order for immediate review on March 28, 2001. The application was docketed in this court on March 30, 2001. In the meantime, however, the probate court judge has scheduled the matter for a final hearing to be held at 10:00 A.M. on April 5, 2001. White has filed an emergency motion for stay pursuant to Court of Appeals Rule 40 (b) to prevent the scheduled hearing from going forward until this court has decided whether to grant his application for interlocutory appeal.

While we agree that White's pending application for interlocutory appeal will be rendered moot if the matter is finally disposed of on April 5, 2001, the issue raised in the application will nevertheless remain subject to appellate review. Because we find that White's emergency motion does not meet the stringent requirements of Rule 40 (b), the motion is hereby denied.

ATLANTA,

APR 13 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A0110218. WILLIAM DILLS ET AL v. ROBERT COMPTON, ET AL.

On March 13, 2001, the Superior Court of Madison County entered an order denying the motion of William Dills, et al., to dismiss the above-captioned appeal for lack of standing. On March 29, 2001, a certificate of immediate review was filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court. On March 31, 2001, William Dills, et al., filed an application for interlocutory review of the order entered on March 13, 2001.

OCGA § 5-6-35 (b) authorizes an application for interlocutory review to be filed with this court when the trial judge in rendering an order, decision, or judgment, not otherwise subject to direct appeal, certifies within ten days of entry thereof that the order, decision, or judgment is of such importance to the case that immediate review should be had. Because the certificate of immediate review was not filed or entered within ten days of entry of the order of March 13, 2001, it is untimely and the above-captioned appeal is hereby DISMISSED. *Turner v. Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0223. RTD ASSOCIATES ET AL v. FORSYTH COUNTY, GEORGIA

This suit arises from a petition for condemnation in rem filed by Forsyth County to obtain certain tracts and parcels of land for a road project. Condemnees RTD Associates, et al., seek interlocutory review of the order of the superior court denying their motion to set aside, vacate and annul a certain Declaration Of Taking Pursuant To OCGA Section 32-3-1 et seq. In an order and judgment, the superior court, acting under the authority of OCGA § 32-3-12 (b), did, inter alia, direct the condemnees to surrender possession of the subject property to Forsyth County, Georgia, not later than 10 days from the date of the filing of the declaration of taking.

Condemnees assert in their application that because OCGA § 32-3-12 (b) can be applied to require them to deliver possession of the subject property to the condemnor before the condemnees can challenge the declaration of taking, it denies them due process under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and under Article I, Section I, Paragraph I and Article I, Section III, Paragraph I of the Georgia Constitution of 1983. In its Order and Judgment, filed March 22, 2001, denying condemnees' motion to set aside, vacate, and annul the declaration of taking the superior court restates the condemnees' constitutional objection and, without citation of authority, "finds as a matter of law that the time limits for surrender of possession do not violate due process of law and are not unconstitutional as applied in this case on their face."

The constitutional issues asserted by the Condemnees and ruled upon by the superior court appear to raise issues of first impression in Georgia requiring an interpretation of both federal and state constitutional provisions. The Supreme Court of Georgia exercises exclusive appellate jurisdiction of all cases involving the construction of the Constitution of Georgia or of the United States and all cases in which the constitutionality of a law has been drawn into question. Article VI, Section VI, Paragraph II (1), Ga. Const. of 1983. And, the Court of Appeals lacks jurisdiction to construe, particularly as to questions of first impression, the scope of the Georgia Constitution of 1983 and its application to the facts of this case. Kolker v. State, 193 Ga. App. 306, 307 (1) (387 SE2d 597) (1989), aff'd, 260 Ga. 240 (391 SE2d 391) (1990); accord Wojcik v. State 260 Ga. 260 (392 SE2d 525) (1990); Pruitt v. State, 230 Ga. Accordingly, this application is hereby TRANSFERRED to the Supreme Court of Georgia for disposition.

ATLANTA,

APR 19 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0231. RICHARD M. STEWART, M. D. v. LANIER PARK MEDICAL OFFICE BLDG., LTD.

On March 20, 2001, the superior court entered judgment against defendant Richard M. Stewart, M. D., but reserved ruling for later determination on certain counts of Stewart's counterclaim. On March 30, 2001, a certificate of immediate review of that judgment was filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court. On Tuesday, April 10, 2001, Richard M. Stewart, M. D., filed an application for interlocutory review of the judgment of March 20, 2001, with the clerk of this court.

Under OCGA § 5-6-34 (b), this court may permit an appeal to be taken from an interlocutory order, decision, or judgment if application is made within ten days after such certificate of immediate review is granted. Because the judgment was not made final by an express determination and direction under OCGA § 9-11-54 (b) and as Stewart filed the application for interlocutory review 11 days after the filing of the certificate of immediate review, the application is untimely and it is hereby DISMISSED. Walter S. Rayborn seeks an interlocutory appeal from the superior court's order denying his motion to compel production and to set a discovery period, entered on March 22, 2001. A certificate of immediate review was entered on April 3, 2001. To be effective, a certificate of immediate review must be signed and filed within 10 days of the entry of the order to which the certificate refers. Turner v. Harper, 231 Ga. 175 (200 SE2d 748) (1973). In this case the certificate was not entered until 12 days after entry of the order to which it refers. Thus, the certificate is untimely and this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider this application. Therefore, this application is ordered DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA,

MAY 16 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A0110233. FONTAINE v. GENESIS CONSTRUCTION COMPANY et al.

Charles E. Fontaine seeks immediate review of an order “denying” his petition for declaratory judgment. Respondents argue, and we agree, that in the process of denying Fontaine’s requested relief, the trial court conclusively established that Fontaine is not the majority shareholder of Genesis Construction Company. Contrary to Fontaine’s assertion on Page 8 of his application, the trial court’s order does not “create[] uncertainty over the control of Genesis’ operations during the pendency of the litigation,” but rather, it affirmatively resolves any potential uncertainty specifically related to Fontaine’s claim of majority ownership in the company.

While the trial court did indeed deny Fontaine the declaratory judgment he was hoping for, the order nevertheless constitutes a declaration of the “rights and other legal relations” of the parties with respect to competing claims of ownership in Genesis Construction. Such a declaration “[has] the force and effect of a final judgment or decree and [is] reviewable as such.” OCGA § 9-4-2 (a) and (b); Sunstates Refrigerated Services v. Griffin, 215 Ga. App. 61, 62 (1) (449 SE2d 858) (1994). By its very terms, an application for interlocutory appeal under OCGA § 5-6-34 (b) is appropriate only where the order, decision, or judgment complained of is "not otherwise subject to direct appeal." Because we find that the judgment at issue here is subject to direct appeal under OCGA § 9-4-2, Fontaine's application for interlocutory appeal is hereby dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. See generally Artis v. Gaither, 199 Ga. App. 114 (404 SE2d 322) (1991).

ATLANTA,

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0238. DONALD A. LEGACY v. CENTRE EQUITIES INC. ET AL.

This application for interlocutory appeal seeks review of the denial of defendant Legacy's motion for summary judgment. The order was filed on March 30, 2001, but the certificate of immediate review was not filed until April 10, 2001.

Under OCGA § 5-6-34 (b), in order to obtain an interlocutory appeal, a certificate of immediate review must be filed within 10 days of entry of the order for which the appeal is sought. If the certificate of immediate review is not filed within the ten-day period allowed, the party seeking review must wait until entry of final judgment in the matter to appeal the order. Turner v. Harper, 231 Ga. 175 (200 SE2d 748) (1973). As the certificate of immediate review was untimely in this case, the application must be DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA,

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A0110241. Greensboro Ford, Inc. v. Ford Motor Company

Greensboro Ford, Inc. filed an application for interlocutory appeal seeking review of the trial court's partial grant and partial denial of Ford Motor Company's motion for summary judgment and denial of Greensboro Ford, Inc.'s motion for summary judgment. This order was entered by the trial court on April 9, 2001. On May 9, 2001, Greensboro Ford, Inc. filed a timely notice of appeal. Because the partial grant of summary judgment is directly appealable pursuant to OCGA § 9-11-56 (h), and because the denial of summary judgment may be appealed without application when it is tied to the directly appealable judgment, this application is now moot. OCGA § 5-6-34 (d); Southeastern Security Insurance Company v. Empire Banking Co., 268 Ga. 450 (490 SE2d 372) (1997). Accordingly, this application is ordered DISMISSED.

ATLANTA,

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A0110262. FRIENDLY CAB COMPANY, ET AL v. ALBANY CAB, ET AL.

On May 24, 2001, Friendly Cab Company, et al., filed an application for interlocutory review of the order of the Superior Court of Dougherty County denying its request for an injunction. As the primary substantive issue to be adjudicated in this case would be "the propriety of equitable relief," jurisdiction over this application is with the Supreme Court of Georgia. Compare Glynn County v. Waters, 268 Ga. 500, 501 (1) (491 SE2d 370) (1997). Accordingly, this case is TRANSFERRED to the Supreme Court for appropriate appellate disposition.

ATLANTA,

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0263. MAURICE ALLAIN v. THE STATE.

MAY 24 2001

Maurice Allain filed this application seeking review of the denial of his motion for reconsideration of motion to dismiss. The trial court denied the motion on April 26, 2001, and a certificate of immediate review was filed on May 1, 2001. This application was filed 14 days later on May 15, 2001.

However, under OCGA § 5-6-34 (b), an application for appeal of interlocutory order must be filed within 10 days after entry of a certificate of immediate review. Because this application is untimely, this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider it. Therefore, this application is DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, MAY 24 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0257. MARY AGNES AVERY v. RODNEY COLEMAN.

Mary Agnes Avery filed this application seeking appellate review of an order of a magistrate court. However, under OCGA § 15-10-41 (b) (1), a judgment of a magistrate court may only be appealed to a state or superior court. Avery's failure to first appeal to the state or superior court deprives this Court of jurisdiction to consider this appeal. Handler v. Hulsey, 199 Ga. App. 751 (406 SE2d 225) (1991). Therefore, this application is DISMISSED.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA,

MAY 21 2001

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A01I0262. FRIENDLY CAB COMPANY, ET AL v. ALBANY CAB, ET AL.

On April 23, 2001, the Superior Court of Dougherty County signed an order denying the motion for injunction filed by plaintiffs Friendly Cab Company, et al. On May 3, 2001, the trial court granted plaintiffs a certificate of immediate review. On Tuesday, May 15, 2001, plaintiffs filed an application with this Court seeking interlocutory review of the order.

OCGA § 5-6-34 (b) provides that after a timely certificate of immediate review has been obtained of an order not otherwise subject to direct appeal, this Court may in its discretion permit an appeal to be taken from that order "if application is made thereto within ten days after such certificate is granted." Because plaintiffs Friendly Cab Company, et al., did not file the application for interlocutory review within ten days after the grant of the certificate, this application is hereby DISMISSED. Genter v. State, 218 Ga. App. 311 (460 SE2d 879) (1995).
