CLERK/COURT ADMINISTRATOR
COURT OF APPEALS OF GA

Dear Mr. Castlen:

Enclosed please find a file-stamped copy of a Notice of Dismissal of Appeal filed by my clients, Anthony Segale and Deborah Segale, in the Superior Court of Fulton County today in the above matter. The purpose of this notice is to dismiss the Segales' appeal in the above matter arising from the Notice of Appeal the Segales filed in the Superior Court on January 9, 2015. Because the Segales' appeal does not appear to have yet been docketed in this Court, the Segales are not filing anything relating to the dismissal in this Court. However, I am sending you a copy of the Notice of Dismissal of Appeal as a courtesy. Please note that this dismissal does not relate to Court of Appeals Case No. A15D0479, docketed on June 29, 2015, which is a separate appeal proceeding to which my clients are not parties.

Very truly yours,

Jared C. Miller

v.

MARCUS DEVON VENTRESS

12CR4641-10

WITHDRAWAL OF NOTICE OF APPEAL

Comes now Marcus Devon Ventress, Defendant in the above-styled case, and withdraws his August 13, 2014 notice of appeal, for the following reasons:

The jury verdict in this case was filed on July 13, 2014. Mr. Ventress filed a notice of appeal on August 13, 2014. This notice of appeal was filed prior to the imposition of sentence and was therefore premature.

2.

Mr. Ventress was sentenced on August 21, 2014. He filed a timely motion for new trial on September 16, 2014. That motion is scheduled to be heard on August 28, 2015.

3.

[E]ven though a notice of appeal may divest the trial court of jurisdiction, such divestiture does not become effective during the period in which a motion for new trial may be filed. If a motion for new trial is timely filed as provided in O.C.G.A. § 5-5-40, the divestiture of jurisdiction is then delayed until the motion for new trial is ruled upon and a notice of appeal to the ruling has been filed or the period for appealing the ruling has expired.

Griffin v. Loper, 209 Ga. App. 504, 505 (433 S.E.2d 653) (1993).

Although the premature notice of appeal might be valid – and although it is technically “on hold,” it is also too likely to cause needless confusion. To avoid such confusion, Mr. Ventress hereby withdraws his August 13, 2014 notice of appeal. If it becomes necessary, he will file a subsequent notice of appeal.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of June, 2015.

COURT OF APPEALS OF GEORGIA

RETURN NOTICE

June 16, 2015

To: Mr. Willie J. Hawkins, 1422 Orange Shoals Drive, Canton, Georgia 30115

Case Number: _____ Lower Court: _____ County Superior Court

Court of Appeals Case Number and Style: _____

Your document(s) is (are) being returned for the following reason(s).

- There is no current case pending in the Court of Appeals of Georgia under your name.
- A Notice of Appeal is filed with the clerk of the trial court and not with the Court of Appeals of Georgia. See OCGA §5-6-37. Once the trial court clerk has received and filed the Notice of Appeal, the trial court clerk will prepare a copy of the record and transcripts as designated by the Notice of Appeal and transmit them to this Court. Once the Notice of Appeal is docketed in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, a Docketing Notice with the Briefing Schedule and other important information is mailed to counsel for the parties or directly to the parties, if the parties are representing themselves. You do not need to provide this Court with a copy of the Notice of Appeal you filed with the superior court.
- The Notice of Appeal must include a proper Certificate of Service. A Certificate of Service must show service to the opposing counsel and contain the counsel's full name and complete mailing address. The opposing counsel must actually be served with a copy of your filing. Certificates sent and filed with court 3/20/15
- An Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus should be filed in the superior court of the county in which you claim you are illegally detained. An appeal from a denial of an Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus is to the Supreme Court and not the Court of Appeals.
- An Application for Writ of Mandamus should be filed in the superior court of the county official whose conduct you intend to mandate. An appeal from a denial of an Application for Writ of Mandamus is to the Supreme Court and not the Court of Appeals.
- Your appeal was disposed by opinion (order) on _____. The Court of Appeals _____ The remittitur issued on _____ divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The case decision is therefore final.
- Your mailing/documents indicate that you intended to file your papers in another court rather than the Court of Appeals of Georgia. The address of the Clerk of the _____ is: _____
- If an attorney has been appointed for you and you are concerned with the representation provided by that attorney, you should address that issue to the trial court. As long as you are represented by an attorney, you cannot file pleadings on your own behalf. Your attorney must file a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel and it must be granted, before you can file your own pleadings in this Court.
- A request for an out-of-time appeal should be made to the trial court from which you are appealing. If your motion is denied by the trial court, you can file an appeal of that decision by filing a Notice of Appeal with the clerk of the superior court.

RE: Your Court Case Number: 14SC063
Sara Mingo v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., et al.

Dear Ms. Broome:

We are in receipt of the record in the above appeal. We are unable to docket the appeal since the Notice of Appeal does not contain a Certificate of Service. Without a Certificate of Service on the Notice of Appeal, we do not know to whom to send the Docketing Notice.

Also, the Notice of Appeal does not state to which Court they are appealing nor does it state which order is being appealed.

Please ask the appellant to see our Citizen's Guide at the Court's website: www.gaappeals.us.

When the Notice of Appeal has been styled as to which Court is being appealed, which order is being appealed and amended by adding a Certificate of Service, please return the record to this Court. At that time, we can docket the appeal.

Dear Mr. Wall:

We are in receipt of the record in the above appeal. The Notice of Appeal designates that a transcript will be filed for inclusion with the record on appeal. We have not received the transcript. We will need included with the transcript an order granting or denying the Request for the Transcript.

Also, we cannot find an appealable order in the record. Until the trial court enters an appealable order, the appeal is premature.

Dear Ms. Carter:

Enclosed please find the record for the above appeal. Attorney Jennifer Watts was permitted to withdraw as counsel on November 18, 2014. We have not been able to locate the new appellant attorney in the record. If counsel has been appointed, we must have the new attorney information added before the record can be docketed.

Also, the attached record is not properly assembled. The record must be securely bound at the top with roundhead fasteners. Please securely bind the record and return it to this office for docketing.

If you have any questions or if I can be of any assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dear Ms. Wills:

We are unable to docket the above referenced appeal. The record contains both a main and companion appeal bound in the same record. Please separate the companion appeal and place the documents that relate to it alone with it. Then create an index for each Notice of Appeal.

Once reassembled, please make sure that the separate parts each have your certification. It is not necessary that you duplicate everything in the record of the main case for the companion Notice of Appeal.

Also, the two separate sets of exhibits must indicate to what filing they are associated and they should be incorporated in the record with that filing.

I am returning the record to you. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me or my Chief Deputy, Patty Bender.

Avienne,

I am working on the large appeal in the above two cases. Although the court entered one order for both case numbers, the party filed two separate NOA's. We can not docket this case with two NOA's in the same record.

There should be one record for each lower court case number and the record should be separate as to each case. I will have to return the record to you.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both primary and secondary data collection techniques. The primary data was gathered through direct observation and interviews, while secondary data was obtained from existing reports and databases.

The third section provides a detailed description of the data analysis process. It covers the use of statistical software to identify trends and correlations within the data. The results of these analyses are presented in a clear and concise manner, highlighting the key findings of the study.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the overall findings and their implications. It suggests that the data indicates a strong correlation between the variables studied, which has significant implications for the field. The author also offers recommendations for further research and practical applications of the findings.

RE: Your Case Number: 2010CV103

Dear Ms. Laidler:

Enclosed please find the record in the above appeal. We are unable to docket the appeal. The record has an improper Certificate of Service. The Certificate of Service must have the complete name and mailing address of opposing counsel. Without the complete name and mailing address of opposing counsel, we are unable to docket the appeal because we do not know to whom to send the Docketing Notice.

Also, the Notice of Appeal is styled "in the Superior Court of Macon County" and refers to the "Georgia Court of Appeals" in the Notice of Appeal which creates confusion as to which Court the appellant is wishing to appeal.

Dear Mr. Baker:

Enclosed please find the record in the above appeal. We are unable to docket the appeal since the record does not contain the order of March 16, 2015 denying the Motion for New Trial as referenced in the Notice of Appeal. When the trial court files the order denying the Motion for New Trial, please append it to the record, include it in the Index and return the record to this office for docketing.

Obviously, should the Court grant the Motion for New Trial, that may make filing an appeal unnecessary.

DISCRETIONARY APPEAL

COMES NOW the above named Petitioner, Pro-SE and files this MOTION FOR DISCRETIONARY APPEAL, with the Georgia Court of Appeals for the sentence of the court entered on the 23rd day of June, 2015 by: Honorable Eugene M. Beaton, Judge, Newton County Superior Court.

1.) The Petitioner, shows the court that on the 18th day of May, 2015 he/she was arrested by the Covington Probation Office for the alleged offenses of: Tested positive for and admitted to using Cocaine and Hydrocodone.

2.) The Petitioner further shows the court that on the 18th day of May, 2015 he/she was never given a "URINE TEST" by the Covington Probation Office, however the Probationer made numerous request to Officers Mr. Ward and Mr. Hickman that he/she wanted to take a urine test, all requests were denied and probationer was subsequently arrested and being held in custody at the Newton Co. Sheriff's Office.

3.) The Petitioner further shows the court that on the 23rd day of June, 2015 he/she was sentenced by the Honorable, Eugene M. Beaton, Judge, Newton County Superior Court to the terms of: Count 1; not more than 180 day in a State Probation Detention Center. Count 2; followed by the probationer serving the balance of his sentence in the Newton County Jail, SO ORDERED, this 23rd day of June, 2015.

4.) The Petitioner further shows the court that even though the defendant is not entitled to a trial by jury for a probation revocation hearing, he/she is entitled to "DUE PROCESS OF LAW" under the 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th, and 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution.

5.) The Petitioner further shows the court that his/her rights "Fundamental Fairness" under DUE PROCESS OF LAW, of the United States Constitution were violated in that there are six (6) guidelines set forth to prevent a probationer from having an ill-devised hearing. 1.) Probationer has never been served in writing with either a revocation petition or warrant with his/her offense(s) which violated the probation. 2.) The probationer's "ACCUSERS" were not present at his/her probation hearing. 3.) The Probationer never got to question/cross-examine his/her "ACCUSERS". 4.) The probationer's probation officer was not present at said revocation hearing.

6.) The Petitioner further shows the court that he/she was sentenced Eight (8) days prior to "Current through laws passed during the 2015 Regular Session of the Georgia General Assembly", G.A. Code Ann., § 42-8-34.1, G.A.S.T. § 42-8-34.1; LAWS 2010, Act 426, § 1, Eff. July 1, 2010 AND LAWS 2015, Act 13, § 4-1, Eff. July 1, 2015. Therefore the Honorable, Eugene M. Benton had limited jurisdiction on the maximum sentence he could impose on any "TECHNICAL VIOLATION" of Probation, other than by the commission of a new felony offense, "80 days of confinement was the maximum he could impose."

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner prays that this Appellate Court sustain and grant his/her relief on the conditions set forth in this DISCRETIONARY APPEAL.

Your document(s) is (are) being returned for the following reason(s).

- There is no case pending in the Court of Appeals of Georgia in the name of Emory A. Lee.
- A Notice of Appeal is filed with the clerk of the trial court and not with the Court of Appeals of Georgia. See OCGA §5-6-37. Once the trial court clerk has received and filed the Notice of Appeal, the trial court clerk will prepare a copy of the record and transcripts as designated by the Notice of Appeal and transmit them to this Court. Once the Notice of Appeal is docketed in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, a Docketing Notice with the Briefing Schedule and other important information is mailed to counsel for the parties or directly to the parties, if the parties are representing themselves. You do not need to provide this Court with a copy of the Notice of Appeal you filed with the superior court.
- The Notice of Appeal must include a proper Certificate of Service. A Certificate of Service must show service to the opposing counsel and contain the counsel's full name and complete mailing address. The opposing counsel must actually be served with a copy of your filing.
- An Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus should be filed in the superior court of the county in which you claim you are illegally detained. An appeal from a denial of an Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus is to the Supreme Court and not the Court of Appeals.

- Your appeal was disposed by opinion (order) on _____. The Court of Appeals divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The remittitur issued on _____.
- Your mailing/documents indicate that you intended to file your papers in another court rather than the Court of Appeals of Georgia. The address of the Clerk of the _____ is: _____
- If an attorney has been appointed for you and you are concerned with the representation provided by that attorney, you should address that issue to the trial court. As long as you are represented by an attorney, you cannot file pleadings on your own behalf. Your attorney must file a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel and it must be granted, before you can file your own pleadings in this Court.
- A request for an out-of-time appeal should be made to the trial court from which you are appealing. If your motion is denied by the trial court, you can file an appeal of that decision by filing a Notice of Appeal with the clerk of the superior court.

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, September 15, 2015

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A16D0007. JAY GOREE v. NAJARIAN CAPITAL, LLC.

Jay Goree filed this application for discretionary appeal from an order entered by the DeKalb County Magistrate Court in this dispossessory action. "The only avenue of appeal available from [a] magistrate court judgment is provided by OCGA § 15-10-41 (b) (1), which allows for a de novo appeal to the state or superior court." Handler v. Hulsey, 199 Ga. App. 751 (406 SE2d 225) (1991). In other words, a party aggrieved by a magistrate court ruling must first seek review in the state or superior court.

The Georgia Constitution requires that "[a]ny court shall transfer to the appropriate court in the state any civil case in which it determines that jurisdiction or venue lies elsewhere." 1983 Ga. Const., Art. 6, Sec. 1, Para. 8; Bosma v. Gunter, 258 Ga. 664 (373 SE2d 368) (1988). Accordingly, this case is hereby TRANSFERRED to DeKalb County State Court for disposition.

CLERK, COURT OF APPEALS OF GEORGIA

FINDINGS

Decided: October 29, 2007

James Michael Money, Edwards, McLeod & Money, P.C., Douglasville, for Appellants. Najarian Capital Group, Temecula, CA, pro se. Jay Bryant Goree, Lawrenceville, pro se.

Honorable court, we respectfully request a review from the Court of Appeals on the Trial Court, Magistrate Courts decision to ignore the Appeal to the Superior Court of Georgia of its decision concerning the propriety of the superior court's exercise of subject-matter jurisdiction in this action. See Najarian Capital Group, LLC vs. Jay Bryant Goree, Pro Se.

This case began as a dispossessory action against appellee Jay Bryant Goree filed by Najarian Capital Group, who reportedly bought the property owned by Goree which resulted in a Wrongful Foreclosure Dispute. Goree answered the complaint and the magistrate court still entered a Writ of Possession and Dispossessory judgment. Goree filed a notice of Appeal and filed a motion to set aside or vacate the judgment. Following a hearing on the to Vacate the Stay by Najarian Capital, motion to set aside, the magistrate court issued an order directing Goree to pay monies into the court for rent upon Appeal and also issued affirmed the Writ of Possession. After Goree paid the Appeals fee for the Superior Court, the Magistrate Court still went ahead and issued a Writ that was signed off on by Judge Leshaw, the Magistrate Court Judge. This resolution of issues outside the magistrate court's jurisdiction but the Honorable Judge has still commenced the Writ Of Possession to issue Instantor.. In superior court, Goree filed a third-party complaint against appellants, Goree is seeking a Motion to vacatr the honorable Judges Orders, alleging, inter alia, that appellants conspired to dispossess him of the his property. The original complaint against Goree was sent to Superior Court by the Magistrate Court refused to stop the Dispossesory Warrant and Goree could possibly end up homeless if the Court of Appeals does not deem this a Superior Court Issue and ensure that the Magistrate Court lacks

Appellee appealed, contending that the Magistrate court lacked jurisdiction over the action because the magistrate court's authority to transfer the action to superior court should have been the entire case including the Writ of Possession there of and that transfer to the superior court was not proper under the applicable rules because this should have prevented the actual case from going to the Marshalls by the Honorable Judge Leshaw signing off on it who presided over the Magistrate Court hearing.

1. The term "subject-matter jurisdiction" has often been loosely used by courts and the Court of Appeals in framing the issues in this case, has caused substantial confusion. See Hopkins v. Hopkins, 237 Ga. 845, 229 S.E.2d 751 (1976). This confusion arises out of the failure of courts to clearly distinguish between subject-matter jurisdiction, personal jurisdiction, venue, and as here, the applicable statutory procedure for pursuing an appeal. See generally id. The phrase "subject-matter jurisdiction," as defined by this Court, " 'refers to subject matter alone,' i.e., 'conferring jurisdiction in specified kinds of cases.' [Cit.]" Id. at 846, 229 S.E.2d 751. " 'Jurisdiction of the subject matter does not mean simply jurisdiction of the particular case then occupying the attention of the court, but jurisdiction of the class of cases to which that particular case belongs.' [Cit.]" Id.

In this appeal, although appellants framed the challenge to the Magistrate court's order as an attack on that court's lack of subject-matter jurisdiction over the transferred action, the real issues were whether Goree followed the applicable statutory procedure for pursuing an appeal from the magistrate court's judgment and the related question of whether the magistrate court properly transferred the underlying dispossessory action to superior court, thereby authorizing that court to rule on the particular facts in the case before it.

Although Goree filed a notice of Appeal from the magistrate court's order granting a Writ of Possession, 2. Although the notice of Appeal had no effect on the magistrate court's authority over the dispossessory action, the court previously had entered judgment in favor of appellants. Goree filed a motion to set aside the default judgment and the magistrate court chose to hold an unreported hearing on that motion. See Howe v. Roberts, 259 Ga. 617(1), 385 S.E.2d 276 (1989) (magistrate court not required to follow Civil Practice Act but is permitted, if it chooses, to do so). The court then entered an order which provided, in pertinent part, that. Further, after the Superior Court Ruling, Jay Goree filed another Appeal to the proper Court, the Court of Appeals of Georgia. The Trial Court Judge Leshaw, then still signed an Order of Writ knowing full well that the lower court lacked Jurisdiction. Judge Leshaw is in violation of the State Law and is also hindering Civil Rights as well as providing Judicial Misconduct.

The magistrate court, however, was not authorized to issue a Writ of Possession, this should have been decided upon by the Superior Court of Dekalb County In the absence of an express order setting aside the judgment, the Court of Appeals is being asked to review the decisions of the Magistrate Court Judge so that Goree will be entitled to due process under Georgia Law Nevertheless, the record in this case makes clear that appellants failed to challenge the propriety of the transfer order in superior court, despite multiple opportunities to do so, and there is no dispute that the superior court would have subject-matter jurisdiction over the dispossessory action had the transfer order been proper.

Goree believes that the issues on appeal, is in conflict with long-standing statutory and case law requiring courts to dismiss an action "[w]henver it appears, by suggestion of the parties or otherwise, that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter." OCGA § 9-11-12(h)(3). "The court's lack of subject-matter jurisdiction cannot be waived and may be raised at any time either in the trial court, in a collateral attack on a judgment, or in an appeal. [Cit.]" Ruskell, Davis and Shulman's Ga. Practice and Procedure § 9:3, p. 464 (2007 ed.). See Jackson v. Gamble, 232 Ga. 149, 152, 205 S.E.2d 256 (1974) (waiver or consent to jurisdiction cannot confer jurisdiction over the subject matter).

Prayer,

.That this court affirms that this case lies with the Court of Appeals County and not with the Magistrate Court or the Superior Court of Dekalb County and that the entire case must be transferred to the Court of Appeals. That the lover court Judge is Sanctioned for gross dereliction of duty and Cann 2 Violation as well as Judicial Misconduct. That this court maintains Jurisdiction.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This case was called on August 10, 2015, pursuant to the Court's issuance of a Rule Nisi originally directing the parties and their attorneys to appear before the Court on August 4, 2015, which hearing was reset to August 10, 2015 at the request of Defendant. This matter is an appeal by Defendant Mr. Goree of a Judgment and Writ of Possession issued by the Magistrate Court of DeKalb County on April 6, 2015.

Plaintiff filed and presented to the Court without objection its Motion To Dismiss Appeal and, in the Alternative, for Issuance of Writ of Possession Instante. Defendant Mr. Goree admitted in open court that he had not made any rental payments into the registry of the court, as directed by the Magistrate Court's Judgment of April 6, 2015. In addition, this Court has confirmed that the Magistrate Court's records indicated that no such rental payments have been made. Therefore, this Court finds that Defendant has failed to make the $1,000 rental payments

"Require." The rules prescribing that a judge "require" certain conduct of others are, like all of the rules in this Code, rules of reason. The use of the term "require" in that context means a judge is to exercise reasonable direction and control over the conduct of those persons subject to the judge's direction and control. See Sections 3B(3), 3B(4), 3B(6), 3B(9) and 3C(2).

"Support" is defined as non-monetary assistance to a candidate. See Sections 3E(1)(d) and 7B(2).

Adopted effective January 1, 1994; amended effective January 1, 1998; September 8, 2011.

Canon 1

Judges Shall Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary.

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. Judges shall participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing high standards of conduct, and shall personally observe such standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

Commentary: Deference to the judgments and rulings of courts depends upon public confidence in the integrity and independence of judges. The integrity and independence of judges depends in turn upon their acting without fear or favor. Although judges should be independent, they must comply with the law, including the provisions of this Code. Public confidence in the impartiality of the judiciary is maintained by the adherence of each judge to this responsibility. Conversely, violation of this Code diminishes public confidence in the judiciary and thereby does injury to the system of government under law.

Adopted effective January 1, 1994.

Canon 2

Judges Shall Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in All Their Activities.

A. Judges shall respect and comply with the law* and shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

Commentary: Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct of judges. Judges must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. Judges must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. Judges must therefore accept restrictions on their conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen, and they should do so freely and willingly.

The prohibition against behaving with impropriety or the appearance of impropriety applies to both the professional and personal conduct of a judge. Because it is not practicable to list all prohibited acts, the proscription is necessarily cast in general terms that extend to conduct by judges that is harmful although not specifically mentioned in the Code. Actual improprieties under this standard include violations of law, court rules, or other specific provisions of this Code. The test for appearance of impropriety is whether the conduct would create in reasonable minds a perception that the judge's ability to carry out judicial responsibilities with integrity, impartiality and competence is impaired.

See also, Commentary under Section 2C.

B. Judges shall not allow their family, social, political or other relationships to influence their judicial conduct or judgment. Judges shall not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance the private interests of the judge or others; nor should they convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence them. Judges should not testify voluntarily as a character witness.

Commentary: Maintaining the prestige of judicial office is essential to a system of government in which the judiciary functions independently of the executive and legislative branches. Respect for the judicial office facilitates the orderly conduct of legitimate judicial functions. Judges should distinguish between proper and improper use of the prestige of office in all of their activities. For example, it would be improper for a judge to allude to his or her judgeship to gain a personal advantage such as deferential treatment when stopped by a police officer for a traffic offense. Similarly, judicial letterhead must not be used for conducting a judge's personal business.

A judge must avoid lending the prestige of judicial office for the advancement of the private interests of others. For example, a judge must not use the judge's position to gain advantage in a civil suit involving a member of the judge's family. In contracts for publication of a judge's writings, a judge should retain control over the advertising to avoid exploitation of the judge's office. As to the acceptance of awards, see Section 4D(5)(a) and Commentary.

Although a judge should be sensitive to possible abuse of the prestige of office, a judge may, based on the judge's personal knowledge, serve as a reference or provide a letter of recommendation. However, a judge must not initiate the communication of information to a sentencing judge or probation or corrections officer, but may provide to such person information for the record in response to a formal request.

Judges may participate in the process of judicial selection by cooperating with appointing authorities and screening committees seeking names for consideration, and by responding to official inquiries concerning a person being considered for a judgeship. See also Canon 5, regarding use of a judge's name in political activities.

A judge must not testify voluntarily as a character witness, because to do so may lend the prestige of the judicial office in support of a party for whom the judge testifies. Moreover, when a judge testifies as a witness, a lawyer who regularly appears before the judge may be placed in the awkward position of cross-examining the judge. A judge may, however, testify when properly summoned. Except in unusual circumstances where the demands of justice require, a judge should discourage a party from requiring the judge to testify as a character witness.
