Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

PROPOSED ORDER (A96D0200.92) February 14, 1996
AGREE	DISAGREE

ATLANTA,

The Honorable Court of Appeals met pursuant to adjournment.

The following order was passed:

A96D0200. ARNOLD BOWEN v. CHESTER BALL, et al.

Arnold Bowen initially filed an application for discretionary appeal in the Supreme Court of Georgia. It appearing that the constitutional issues raised within the application involve the application of well-settled principles, the Supreme Court transferred the application to this Court. Bowen did not pay costs in the Supreme Court when the application was filed, and no costs were paid in this Court upon the application's transfer. OCGA § 5-6-4, however, provides that the Clerk of the Court shall not receive any application until the cost has been paid or sufficient pauper's affidavit has been filed. Accordingly, Bowen is hereby ordered to pay filing costs within ten days of the date of this order. Failure to pay such costs within the time period will result in dismissal of the application.
