of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA,

JUN 26 2002

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A02A0434. WAGA-TV, INC./WAGA TV, et al. v. JAMES S. YANG

This Court reversed the judgment of the trial court by this Court's opinion dated May 31, 2002. Thereafter, appellant filed a timely Motion for Reconsideration on June 10, 2002. On the same day, appellee filed a Notice of Intent to Apply for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia, and on June 19, 2002, appellee filed an Application for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia, said application being docketed in the Supreme Court as case number S02C1507.

The filing of the application for certiorari transfers jurisdiction from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court. Therefore, this Court is without jurisdiction to issue an order on the Motion for Reconsideration. Therefore, that motion is DISMISSED.

Should the Supreme Court of Georgia deny certiorari in the pending application, and upon the remittitur from the Supreme Court being issued to the Court of Appeals, return jurisdiction to this Court, this Court will deal with the issues presented in the Motion for Reconsideration. Should the Supreme Court of Georgia remand the matter to the Court of Appeals for a determination of the Motion for Reconsideration before the Supreme Court considers the Application for Certiorari, at that time this Court will deal with the Motion for Reconsideration.

ATLANTA,

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A02A0434. WAGA-TV, INC./WAGA TV, et al. v. JAMES S. YANG

On July 1, 2002, this Court issued an order dismissing the Motion for Reconsideration filed by appellants because appellee had filed an Application for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia, divesting this Court of jurisdiction. This Court's order of July 1, 2002, stated the Motion for Reconsideration would be considered by this Court should the Supreme Court of Georgia deny the Application for Certiorari.

Since the Supreme Court of Georgia has denied the Application for Certiorari, this Court will consider the Motion for Reconsideration. It is further ordered that the April 2002 Term of this Court be extended "relative to this case to enable the Court to consider the previously dismissed, now pending, Motion for Reconsideration, upon the denial of the Application for Certiorari by the Supreme Court of Georgia and the Supreme Court's remittitur dated October 18, 2002, and delivered to the Court of Appeals of Georgia on October 23, 2002, returning jurisdiction of this matter to the Court of Appeals. OCGA §(§)15-2-4(,15-3-2).' Haygood v. City of Doraville, 256 Ga. 566, 567 (350 SE2d 766) (1986)." Stuckey v. Richardson 188 Ga. App. 147, 149 (4) 372SE2d 458) (1988).

Should appellant feel the need to supplement the Motion for Reconsideration with recent authority since the original filing date, appellant may do so by filing a Supplement to the Motion for Reconsideration with the clerk of this Court within 5 days of the date of this order. Appellee may file a response to the original Motion for Reconsideration, and should a supplemental Motion for Reconsideration be filed with this Court, appellee may file a response to the supplemented Motion for Reconsideration within five (5) days of the filing of the supplemented Motion for Reconsideration.

ATLANTA,

SEP 04 2003

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A03A1101. FARON BUSSEY v. THE STATE.

This Court issued its opinion on August 12, 2003, affirming the judgment of the trial court. On August 21, 2003, appellant filed a Motion for Reconsideration. While the Motion for Reconsideration was pending in this Court, on August 26, 2003, appellant filed an Application for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia.

Filing an Application for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia transfers jurisdiction from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court. As such, this Court no longer has jurisdiction to consider appellant's Motion for Reconsideration. Therefore, the Motion for Reconsideration is hereby DISMISSED.

ATLANTA,

OCT 09 2003

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A03A1605. TRACY L. HENDRIX v. UNIVERSAL UNDERWRITERS INSURANCE COMPANY

On September 15, 2003, this Court issued an opinion affirming in part and reversing in part the judgment of the trial court. Thereafter, on September 25, appellant filed a Motion for Reconsideration of this Court's opinion. On October 1, 2003, appellee filed a response to the Motion for Reconsideration.

On October 3, 2003, appellee filed an Application for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia. The filing of an Application for Certiorari with the Supreme Court of Georgia divests the Court of Appeals of Georgia of jurisdiction. As such, the Motion for Reconsideration is hereby DISMISSED.
