SC900225 Dorothy H. McRae v. Cobb County, et al.

04/12/90 - conf. set for 5/4/90 at 4:00 p.m.

04/17/90 - conf. set for May 4

06/07/90 - good potential for settlement, but involves some action by the county commission so it may be long in processing

06/11/90 - same as above - he will check with attys periodically - this one will take some time

08/06/90 - received ltr from Judge Langford to parties re status

08/21/90 - Judge Langford will contact the parties

09/14/90 - second conf. set for 10/17/90 at 3:30 p.m.

10/03/90 - same as above

10/19/90 - had conf. - an offer has been made - will give them a month to 6 weeks to come together on figure

11/26/90 - Judge Langford is in Forsyth Co. for 2 weeks; I asked Sue to get him to check on status when he returns

12/17/90 - this is a difficult r-o-w case, involves existing lawsuit plus a future condemnation, may have to have 3rd conf.

01/11/91 - thinks he will write a letter giving them a certain period of time to settle or he will terminate

02/06/91 - Judge Langford talked to atty for county - 2nd condemnation may be moved to another spot - this has to go before co. commission may still take awhile - will give until April or May - then may terminate and let them battle it out at COA

11/07/95 - MEMO TO FILE RE: DELETING MR. LIEB FROM COST DUE REPORT

Court of Appeals

Memorandum

To: FILE

From: MADELINE MAIETTA

Subject: COSTS DUE - SC910040

Date: November 13, 1995

By Order dated March 20, 1991, costs were assessed in the above referenced matter. Mr. John J. Lieb, Esq, for the Appellant, failed to make payment. Repeated attempts were made to collect the costs due from Mr. Lieb via correspondence by the Settlement Conference Clerk dated September 9, 1991, July 2, 1993, October 21, 1994 (which was returned because forwarding address order had expire), February 21, 1995 (which was mailed to Mr. Lieb's new mailing address, and June 12, 1995 (certified mail returned unclaimed).

I contacted the Georgia Bar Association with reference to Mr. Lieb's status as an attorney in Georgia. I was told that Mr. Leib is not in good standing for failure to pay Bar dues as of September 1, 1995. The Bar Association has his last known address listed as 495-A Greenwood Avenue, Atlanta, GA 30308, which was the address to which the February correspondence was mailed and subsequently returned to the Court unclaimed.

As of this date, Mr. Lieb has not paid said costs and it is expected that any further attempts by this Court to obtain these funds would be unsuccessful. To avoid further expenditure of the Court's time and resources, this matter is now closed and the file forwarded pursuant to the Court's record retention schedule.

To facilitate the removal of this party from the computer generated cost due report, the costs due from this party were deleted from the party screen. Thus, the system reflects no costs are due from Mr. Lieb and no costs have been paid. The computer program, as written, would not allow for any other alternative. After discussion with Bud Tirey, it was decided that reprogramming or modifying the settlement conference automated system at this final stage of the Settlement Conference would not be feasible.

04/17/91 - HAD CALL FROM MELODY WILDER-I FAXED HER A COPY OF PROPOSED ORDER SHE IS GOING TO CALL JUDGE SHULMAN TO DISCUSS THE SETTLEMENT-IT IS UNUSUAL IN THAT THEIR SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT REVERSES THE TRIAL COURT JUDGMENT AND REINSTATES THE MAGISTRATE COURT JUDGMENT-THE TERMS OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT ARE NOT TO BE MADE PUBLIC RECORD

Memorandum

To: FILE

From: MADELINE MAIETTA

Subject: COSTS DUE - SC910749

By Order dated January 16, 1992, costs were assessed in the above referenced matter. Mr. N.W. Leathers, acting pro se in this matter, failed to make payment. Repeated attempts were made to collect the costs due from Mr. Leathers via correspondence by the Settlement Conference Clerk dated July 7, 1993, October 21, 1994, and February 21, 1995.

As of this date, Mr. Leathers has not paid said costs and it is expected that any further attempts by this Court to obtain these funds would be unsuccessful. To avoid further expenditure of the Court's time and resources, this matter is now closed and the file forwarded pursuant to the Court's record retention schedule.

To facilitate the removal of this party from the computer generated cost due report, the costs due from this party were deleted from the party screen. Thus, the system reflects no costs are due from Mr. Leathers and no costs have been paid. The computer program, as written, would not allow for any other alternative. After discussion with Bud Tirey, it was decided that reprogramming/modifying the settlement conference automated system at this final stage of the Settlement Conference would not be feasible.
