

External Factors

- Increasing diversity of the Georgia population and numbers of persons filing as pro se litigants.
- Changes in technology.
- Growth in Atlanta metropolitan area and transportation and environment issues relative to that growth.

Internal Factors

- Continued growth of workload.
- Trained staff attorneys relative to opinion writing.
- Remote access.
- Public access to information via court website.

new appeals

PDs / Fedl ^{system} push juris to states