REPORTED

In the Court of Appeals of Georgia

A13A1359. BIVENS v. THE STATE.

BOGGS, Judge.

Zachary David Bivens, Omar Falay, and Francelis Dorce were indicted on a variety of charges arising out of a robbery during the course of a drug transaction, including two counts of felony murder, criminal attempt to commit armed robbery, armed robbery, and two counts of aggravated assault.¹ Bivens was convicted of criminal attempt to commit armed robbery and acquitted on the remaining counts. His amended motion for new trial was denied, and he appeals, alleging insufficiency of the evidence to corroborate the testimony of an accomplice. We find the evidence sufficient, and we affirm.

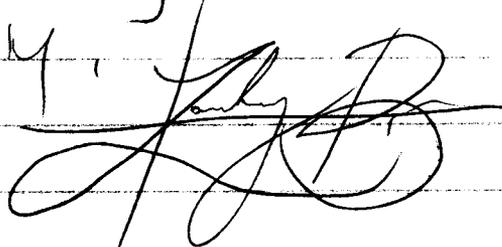

¹The charge of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute was not pressed.

Dear Clerk,

In reference to the remittor sent by this court to the Gwinnett Superior Court on 9/19/13, In the Case of Bivens vs State Case No. A13A1359, I hereby inquire whether an opinion was ever published in support of the Affirmation by the Court.

I will appreciate you telling me whether or not there was a published opinion & if so I will further appreciate you sending me such an opinion.

Sincerely,
