Dear Mr. Chambers:

I am in receipt of your letter in which you mentioned you do not know where to file an Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus. The Writ of Habeas Corpus would be first filed in the superior court of the county where you claim to be illegally detained. If that is denied, you may appeal that decision to the Supreme Court of Georgia, not the Court of Appeals. You may contact the Supreme Court at the following address: 244 Washington Street, S.W., Suite 572, Atlanta, Georgia 30334.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Castlen
Clerk/Court Administrator
Court of Appeals of Georgia

SEC/ld

Dear Clerk,

I'm sorry to have to address you as Clerk, but I do not have a name at this moment. Though I hope you receive this letter in the best of health. As for myself, I'm trying to be strong under my present circumstances and confusion.

And I'm confused due to I don't know in which court do I file my Direct Appeal Amendment or do I have to file an Out of Time Appeal on my Habeas Corpus, nor do I know in which Court do I file my Brief.

The reason for this confusion is due to I was transferred from Autry State Prison to Ga. State Prison. Then to be placed on the Tier Program, and we had problems with receiving legal materials from the Law Library.

Also I lost several important legal documents, therefore, I need information to seek justice. Thanks for your aid and assistance in advance, and for your present time. And may you have a blessed day.

Civil Action No. 12-V-267

- 1) Is my Direct Appeal to my Habeas Corpus valid?
- 2) If it is valid, in which Court do I file my Brief?
- 3) If not, then in which Court do I file my Out of Time Appeal?

Respectfully Submitted,
Jarcarol Chambers
