Your Honor:

I am writing an amendment to my "Discretionary Application", and in doing so, I discovered that I need a copy of the "original" court production order, to support my claims. I have already written to Clerk, Steve Castle, requesting a blank subpoena, to fill out and send to the trial court. But because this is a time sensitive issue, I fear that I will not have that documentation in time.

In the event, that window closes, am I allowed to write that "the court production order shall be included along with the transcript of proceedings by the trial court", on the "Notice of Appeal"?

Thank you for assisting me in this matter.

Respectfully,

Ife Chatman-Henry
