To Whom this may concern
COURT ADMINISTRATOR
COURT OF APPEALS OF GA

I just received your letter explaining the very unfortunate subsequent events which led to my dismissal. I would most definitely want to file a out-of-time motion but due to my lack of knowledge of the courts procedures I don't know how to, that why I hired a attorney in the first place. I've tried on multiple medium contacting my lawyer but yet to have receive a response. So consequently I'm very poorly educated and informed by my Counsel concerning any parts of my appeal, I don't even know the grounds on which he raised and filed on my behalf. Consequently I'm receiving this very alarming letter of dismissal but I don't know who else to contact in regards to this major issue of incompetence, I've contacted my lawyer as I've done numerous time before without a response but frankly I don't know who else to contact to re-assure the safety of my appeal and my rights as a defendand.
