COURT OF APPEALS OF GEORGIA

RE: Frederick Dwight Green vs. State of Georgia
Rockdale Superior Court case no: 2007-CR-1428N

Dear Mr. Castlen:

I, defendant in the above-mentioned case, have filed several filings in your office that has been sent back to me, advising me that "There is no case in the Court of Appeals of Georgia under your name."

The first filing was a "Motion To Vacate, Set Aside, Modify Or Correct Null & Void Sentence", received in your office on August 31, 2015. The second was a "Notice of Filing" in which I was filing the Court order from Rockdale Superior Court that was the basis of the appeal.

I received, on October 2nd, 2015, a letter from the Clerk of Rockdale Superior Court advising me that she has sent you a letter and indexes regarding my case on September 30, 2015.

According to the paperwork you sent me, the letter from the Rockdale Clerk was sent out because of the Notice of Appeal I filed with the superior court.

My concern is, am I to wait for this Court to send me a Docketing Notice with the Briefing Schedule before I refile my paperwork? or Are my filings considered to be valid as they are?

Sincerely

Frederick Green (pro se)
