Appeals Court,

I am in need of assistance, I feel as if I am being hoodwinked by my public defender. Recently, there was a suppression hearing ~~held~~ held for issues involving my case. The motion was denied, I then asked my attorney to file an appeal. He told me we cannot file an appeal, so explained to him his service is no longer needed and I will be carrying on pro se. So my question to you is when can I file for an appeal for the suppression hearing, IF I can only file it when my trial is completed that's fine. But need to know, tell me if there a form if so can I please have one sent home.

Respectfully #14919
Michael Johnson
