Case Number: _____ Lower Court: _____ County Superior Court _____

Court of Appeals Case Number and Style: _____

Your document(s) is (are) being returned for the following reason(s).

- There is no case pending in the Court of Appeals of Georgia under your name.
- A Notice of Appeal is filed with the clerk of the trial court and not with the Court of Appeals of Georgia. See OCGA §5-6-37. Once the trial court clerk has received and filed the Notice of Appeal, the trial court clerk will prepare a copy of the record and transcripts as designated by the Notice of Appeal and transmit them to this Court. Once the Notice of Appeal is docketed in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, a Docketing Notice with the Briefing Schedule and other important information is mailed to counsel for the parties or directly to the parties, if the parties are representing themselves. You do not need to provide this Court with a copy of the Notice of Appeal you filed with the superior court.
- The Notice of Appeal must include a proper Certificate of Service. A Certificate of Service must show service to the opposing counsel and contain the counsel's full name and complete mailing address. The opposing counsel must actually be served with a copy of your filing.
- An Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus should be filed in the superior court of the county in which you claim you are illegally detained. An appeal from a denial of an Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus is to the Supreme Court and not the Court of Appeals.
- An Application for Writ of Mandamus should be filed in the superior court of the county official whose conduct you intend to mandate. An appeal from a denial of an Application for Writ of Mandamus is to the Supreme Court and not the Court of Appeals.

- If an attorney has been appointed for you and you are concerned with the representation provided by that attorney, you should address that issue to the trial court. As long as you are represented by an attorney, you cannot file pleadings on your own behalf. Your attorney must file a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel and it must be granted, before you can file your own pleadings in this Court.
- A request for an out-of-time appeal should be made to the trial court from which you are appealing. If your motion is denied by the trial court, you can file an appeal of that decision by filing a Notice of Appeal with the clerk of the superior court.

Case No.:

MOTION TO DISMISS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT;

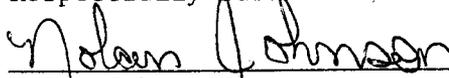

COMES NOW, Nolan Johnson, Petitioner, pro se, to petition this Court to Dismiss the above mentioned Case, with prejudice for want of prosecution. Petitioner has been incarcerated since September 10, 2010. The State of Georgia, Fulton County, has been aware of Petitioner's incarceration. Petitioner has sent several motions trying to deal with this charge appropriately. However, this Court has refused to act upon any of these motions, (Plea in Absentia, and Writ Habeas Corpus). The Bureau of Prisons also sent a 'Detainer Action Letter' to this Court. Therefore, this Court has had ample time to prosecute this Petitioner and has failed to do so.

CONCLUSION

This Court should dismiss these charges with prejudice, for want of prosecution. This Petitioner and the Bureau of Prisons have tried every avenue available to persuade this Court to prosecute to no avail. Therefore, this Court should dismiss all charges with prejudice.

As my understanding of the law is very limited and I am filing pro se, please give this Petitioner substantial leeway, Haines v. Kerner 404 US 519 30 Led 2d 652 92 S Ct. 594.

Respectfully Submitted,

Nolan Johnson
