RE: Adoption Records Appeal
A14A1924, JEANNETTE E. SCRIVEN

Do I need to file a motion to get a decision because there is no opposition & nothing happening to my requests, or do I need to file an order for the judge to sign because there is no opposition?

Is there anything missing? I have no way to find out because all of the files are secret!

All I want is a COMPLETE copy of the old original court file and the State's file from Mr. Twitty about my adoption.

I have been trying for over 35 years to get a complete copy of my original adoption file. I was born in Maryland, adopted in Georgia, have lived in North Carolina, Florida & Colorado, but I do not understand why the State of Georgia can deny me my basic civil rights to know who I am & give me my complete adoption file.

Sincerely,

Jeannette E Scriven
