Dear Mr. Stephen Castlen:

I, Tiara Smith, am writing to you to request a template for a Discretionary Application to appeal from the denial of an Extraordinary Motion For New Trial. At the institution wherein I presently reside, there is not a form for this application. I do not wish for my Notice of Appeal to be denied on the merits for the lack of such application.

I will need this information expediently because I have filed another motion to compel the Superior Court to make a ruling on the Extraordinary Motion For New Trial. In the event of that motion being denied, my next step is to file a Discretionary Application along with other documents as my right to seek relief from my conviction, pro se.

Please respond at your earliest convenience. I deeply appreciate your inclination to help one like me in the pursuit of justice.

Sincerely,

Tiana Smith
