RE: REQUEST FOR COURT RULES

Dear Honorable Clerk of the Appeals Court of Georgia,

I write this letter in order to request that you please send me a copy of the official rules of this Court. I am a pro se inmate litigant incarcerated in a Federal Correctional Institution. The law library here at this institution does not contain any state research material. I have no access what so ever to the Rules of any state courts or procedures. I have no funds to purchase such rules and request that this Honorable court provide me with the rules without cost.

I do have a pending Georgia State Habeas action pending in Colquitt County for a 2013 Felony Murder conviction which the Superior Court granted me to proceed in forma pauperis. I will need a copy of the court rules in order to comply with any possible future filings to the court in the case that the Superior Court denies my habeas petition.

Thank you so very much for you time and proffessionalism.

Respectfully

JERRY THOMPSON
