COURT OF APPEALS OF GA

A 15D0491

I submitted an application for plea withdrawal and sentence modification 6/29/15. Your reply stated there was not a notice for plea withdrawal included. My mistake.

I sent a letter asking the material in my application be returned to me. Your reply stated that I had to send $64.50 to retrieve it.

I don't have $64.50 now, but I max the serve portion of my sentence 1/22/16. Shortly after that I'll ^{have} the money to pay for return of my application.

The copy that I kept for myself got misplaced during a shake-down by guards here at the prison.

I plan to pursue this matter when I'm released from prison. I'll be on probation. So, I will have to ^{seek} get a job and that will limit the time I'll have to redo all the research put in this material.

My attorney allowed the State to use charges of things that was unprovable because they didn't happen to extort me into taking the deal I signed under duress.

This job was to defend me to the best of his ability. He had no intention of — doing that!

So, he violated an oath that is or should be punished by the law. The paperwork I'm trying to retrieve will prove that and allow me to seek a fairer sentence.

My case started with five charges, I'm guilty of only one if any!

Please respond so I'll have an idea of what I need to do

Respectfully
Joseph Wade Jr.
