Your document(s) is (are) being returned for the following reason(s).

- There is no case pending in the Court of Appeals of Georgia under your name.
- A Notice of Appeal is filed with the clerk of the trial court and not with the Court of Appeals of Georgia. See OCGA §5-6-37. Once the trial court clerk has received and filed the Notice of Appeal, the trial court clerk will prepare a copy of the record and transcripts as designated by the Notice of Appeal and transmit them to this Court. Once the Notice of Appeal is docketed in the Court of Appeals of Georgia, a Docketing Notice with the Briefing Schedule and other important information is mailed to counsel for the parties or directly to the parties, if the parties are representing themselves. You do not need to provide this Court with a copy of the Notice of Appeal you filed with the superior court.

- An appeal from an order revoking your probation must be made by Discretionary Application filed directly with the Court of Appeals of Georgia. The Court will require a stamped filed copy of the order you are appealing and copies of so much of the record as you think the Court of Appeals will need to review in order to reach the determination that the trial court committed reversible error.

The application must be filed with the Court of Appeals of Georgia within 30 days of the date of the entry of the order or the judgment you are appealing.

I have enclosed a copy of the Rules of the Court of Appeals of Georgia for your review. Please refer to OCGA §5-6-35 for the statutory requirements in filing a Discretionary Application.
