TO: Mr. Michael A. Williams, GDC1073475 LA-201, Georgia Diagnostic and Classification Center, State Prison, Post Office Box 3877, Jackson, Georgia 30233

RE: A15A2055. Michael A. Williams v. The State

CASE STATUS - DISPOSED

- The referenced appeal was _____ on _____. The remittitur issued on _____, divesting this Court of any further jurisdiction of your case. The case is therefore, final.

CASE STATUS - PENDING

- The above referenced appeal is still pending in your name before this Court. The appeal was docketed in the September 2015 Term and a decision must be rendered by the Court by the end of the January 2016 Term which ends on or about April 14, 2016.

I am returning the Notice of Intent and Notice of Filing Petition of Certiorari to you.

APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO APPEAL A PROBATION REVOCATION

- To appeal a probation revocation, you will need to file a Discretionary Application with this Court. Rule 31 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals of Georgia describes a Discretionary Application and the items you would need to include with your application.

A Discretionary Application must be filed within 30 days of the stamped filed date on the order that you are appealing and the application must be accompanied by a proper Certificate of Service and a pauper's affidavit or the $80.00 filing fee. You must also comply with all the other applicable rules of Court regarding filing with the Court of Appeals of Georgia.

Enclosed, please find a copy of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for your review.

ALSA 2055

To the clerk of the court of Appeals,

6-28-15 Sunday

enclosed behind this letter is a hand written document from the trial court clerk Debbie Kines about my Notice of Appeal being filed to the court of appeals. Which I mailed to her and the 3 forms to the court of appeals, and on May 22, 2015 the court of appeals wrote me back saying it's nothing on record under my name showing that a Notice of Appeal has been filed. So the court of appeals sent me all 3 forms back that I must file to them in order for them to serve the opposing party after the court of appeals have received my Notice of Appeal with my filing records before I can file anything in the court of Appeals. So the documented letter from Debbie Kines the Trial Court explains why she's just now filing my Notice of Appeal which I did recommend the entirety of the record and not to leave out anything I specifically named everything that I've filed concerning my issue to be sent with the entirety of the record but she must've thought I wanted just my filings to be sent without the judge's decisions of denial. But her letter shows when she notified me about this matter so instead of me having to wait on the prison to re-order court of appeal filing forms. I just re-filed the same forms I filed the first time that you sent back to me saying I must have a notice of Appeal on record with the court of Appeals before I can file the form 2, 3 and 4 to the court of appeals for the opposing party can ~~be~~ ^{be} served so I no longer know the deadline all I know is that the trial court clerk Debbie Kines sent me a document letter that I received on June 18, 2015 saying she was mailing my Notice of Appeal back off to the Court of Appeals but she did not say when nor did she say she had already mailed it. So I don't know when she mailed it off ~~or what date she mailed it off~~. So I just kept the same forms and was about to change the date but I decided not to ~~change~~ ^{so I left} the date exactly how I mailed it to you the first time and I put the D.A. address on it so you could serve him because I don't know what date the clerk mailed my Notice of App

Respectfully

Submitted,

In RE: Appeal; 00-R-074

Mr. Williams:

The appeal record, as you designated in your notice of appeal, was mailed to the Court of Appeals on May 19, 2015. You did not request the order denying the motion for extraordinary motion for new trial and therefore, was not mailed. The Court of Appeals returned the record until the order was available. I am forwarding the record back to them with the order for review and/or filing.

I trust this explains the position of your appeal.

Sincerely,

Debbie Kines, Clerk
