Dear Kate:

RE: Use of 3 images in film

For the Russell Library, I am pleased to grant permission as requested and described in your e-mail letter of 14 September 2005 for reproduction of 3 images of Judge Richard B. Russell, Sr. (RBR/WSB PF 02-3,5,7) in the forthcoming educational film commemorating the Court of Appeals' centennial year. This is permission for non-exclusive, one-time use only as described in this letter, for United States, its territories and possessions, and English language distribution. I understand that the film will be made available to all Georgia school districts and educational institutions.

We are providing the images to you as 8 x 10, 300 dpi, tiff files on a CD-ROM via US Mail. Please credit each image: Courtesy of the Richard B. Russell Library for Political Research and Studies, The University of Georgia Libraries; or provide a line for the Russell Library in the film credits. A complimentary copy of the final publication in any format using reproductions from the Russell Library materials must be donated to the Russell Library.

The cost will be $36—$21 for scan reproduction and $15 for a CD—plus postage. In support of this project, we are waiving preservation use fees of $30 ($25 minimum, $10 per image per use). The University of Georgia Libraries will address an invoice as directed to Centennial Project, Georgia Court of Appeals and mail to the attention of Bob McAteer.

Any future uses will require separate permission and will be assessed fees current at time of that request. Best wishes for your project, and we look forward to receiving a copy of the Georgia Court of Appeals film for our reference collection.

Sincerely,

Sheryl B. Vogt

Dear Bob:

RE: Use of 4 images in film; X-ref research Katherine L. Ripple

For the Russell Library, I am pleased to grant permission as requested and described in your e-mail letter of 23 February 2006 for reproduction of 4 images pertaining to Judge Richard B. Russell, Sr. in the forthcoming educational film commemorating the Court of Appeals' centennial year. (The images are RBRW William John Russell Family, 1890; RBRW Richard Brevard Russell Sr., ca. 1904 ; WSB 02-06 Campaign poster, 1922 Chief Justice race; and WSB 12-25 Judge and Mrs. Russell with their children, 1926.) This is permission for non-exclusive, one-time use only as described in this letter, for United States, its territories and possessions, and English language distribution. I understand that the film will be made available to all Georgia school districts and educational institutions.

We are providing the images to you as 8 x 10, 300 dpi, tiff files on a CD-ROM via US Mail. Please credit each image: Courtesy of the Richard B. A complimentary copy of the final publication in any format using reproductions from the Russell Library materials must be donated to the Russell Library.

The cost will be $45.07—$28 for scan reproduction and $15 for a CD—plus postage, $2.07. In support of this project, we are waiving preservation use fees of $40 ($25 minimum, $10 per image per use). The University of Georgia Libraries will address an invoice as directed to Centennial Project, Georgia Court of Appeals, and mailed to your attention.

Any future uses will require separate permission and will be assessed fees current at time of that request. Best wishes for your project, and we look forward to receiving a copy of the Georgia Court of Appeals film for our reference collection.

Subject: Court of Appeals Centennial Video: Permission for Articles used

Ms. Everett,

I am writing to get permission to use various news articles in a documentary produced by the Court of Appeals of Georgia. I originally spoke with Joanie a few months back and she said to email the articles that I would be using to permissions@ajc.com. I did so and that email was forwarded to Yadira Pizarro at Pars International. Ms. Pizarro asked me to email you.

I am getting ready to send the master tape out for duplications. I wanted to make sure that I credit the proper agency. Can you tell me what that would be?

If you have any other questions please feel free to email me or call me at (404) 463-8649.

Thank You,
Bob
