Goodbye, Bob McAteer (mcateerb@gaappeals.us).

The current Chat session has ended. A transcript of this session has been sent to your e-mail address. Thank you for using the Ask a Librarian Chat service.

Please take a moment to fill out a survey at: Chat Survey

Chat Session Transcript:

Chat Session Transcript: Do you have access to the "Atlanta Constitution" and "The Atlanta" dating back to 1892? Or any other historical Atlanta newspapers that go back that far? If so, can I print copies of certain articles. I am not a student. I work for the Court of Appeals of Georgia.

[Librarian 16:03:00]: Hello, I have received your question. Give me a moment to read through it.

[Patron 16:03:23]: ok thanks

[Librarian 16:04:02]: Hi, I want to direct you the following web page that lists what newspapers we own and how far back they go and in what format.

[Librarian 16:04:40]: This web page will open up in a new browser window - just wanted to warn you.

[Librarian 16:05:07]: <http://www.library.gsu.edu/research/pages.asp?IdID=25&guideID=0&ID=270>

[Librarian 16:05:24]: Did that open in a new window?

[Patron 16:06:05]: Yes, this is great. exactly what I was looking for [Librarian 16:06:20]: Great. In order to make copies...

[Librarian 16:06:56]: you need to purchase a guest copy card when you come to the library to look at newspapers on microfilm

[Librarian 16:07:16]: which you can do on the same floor as the newspapers

[Patron 16:07:32]: Perfect

[Librarian 16:07:41]: it cost $1.00 and then you have to put additional money on it

[Librarian 16:08:04]: there is a help desk up there so they can assist you when you come to do research

[Patron 16:08:06]: How much per page?

[Librarian 16:08:24]: 10 cents per page

[Librarian 16:08:37]: Is there anything else I can help you with?

[Patron 16:08:53]: Great. Thank you so much. You have been very helpful.

[Patron 16:09:04]: That will do it.

[Librarian 16:09:13]: You're very welcome. Thank you for using the Ask-A-Librarian service. Please contact us again if you need additional information.

[Patron 16:09:14]: bye

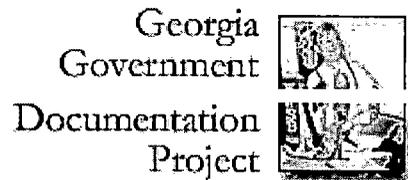

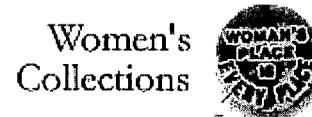

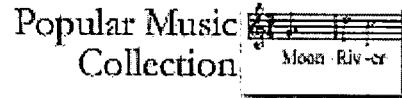

[Patron 16:09:26]: Patron ended chat session.

Duplication Services

Policy | Procedures | Ordering | Prices | Payment

Policy

1. In order to insure the careful handling of Special Collections materials, all copying is done or arranged by Special Collections staff. Personal duplication/reproduction equipment is not allowed in the reading room without permission.
2. Special Collections will not reproduce entire manuscript or archival collections or extensive sections more than 25% of any oral history interview will be copied. [Unrestricted transcripts from the GGDP project will be copied in their entirety.]
3. Reproduction of audio or visual tapes will be done on a case-by-case basis. This determination will be based on preservation issues, donor restrictions or copyright restrictions imposed upon the item. When copies are made, they become the property of the Archives. Original materials from the Archives' collections will remain the property of the researchers.
4. Items so fragile that they would be damaged in the process of duplicating them will not be reproduced. Items will not be reproduced if the procedure will in any way injure the material, for example: bound newspapers, volumes, early manuscripts, or rare books. The decision to prohibit reproduction will be made by the staff at the reference desk; this decision is final.
5. Certain materials cannot be copied because of restrictions placed upon the item by the donor or agency. In every case, copyright law (Title 17 of the U.S. Code) and the doctrine of educational fair use (Section 107) applies.
6. Copies of materials housed in the Special Collections Department are to be used solely for scholarly purposes. The department reserves the right to request the return of photocopies. Copyright is not conveyed with the copies. The researcher must not quote from, publish, reproduce, or display any material in the copy, in whole or in part, without written permission from the copyright holder and from Special Collections Department. Transfer of copies to another library or repository is prohibited, except with written permission of the head of Special Collections.
7. Materials which the Archives has obtained from other institutions or projects cannot be copied unless the researcher has obtained written permission of the original institution. The researcher assumes all responsibility for copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise in copying audio-visual materials and in the use made of them.
8. Researchers may contact the department for a list of freelance researchers who can be employed to examine the collections and select relevant items for reproduction.

Please contact the Head of Special Collections with any questions concerning this policy.

Approved July 2003.

Procedures

All services must be pre-paid. Payment may be made either by cash, check, or money order. Checks should be made payable to "Georgia State University Library." Inter-departmental payments may be made by transfer.

Photocopies:

Requests for photocopies should be made of the staff member at the reference desk. Every attempt will be made to complete photocopy requests in a timely manner. Orders will not be completed on a while-you-wait basis. The turnaround time is 24 hours. Exceptions are granted for requests of 7 pages or less. Large orders may take longer to process. The cost is 20 cents per page. Photocopies can be picked up or mailed; if mailed there is a shipping fee.

The procedure for photocopy reproduction is as follows:

1. Please complete the Photocopy Request Form (available here for offsite researchers).
2. Please be sure archives staff is aware of what needs to be copied.
3. Please do not remove original material from folders. Turn the Photocopy Request Slip (yellow form) in front of the materials you would like copied in the folder. This will ensure the materials remain bound volumes (if it is permissible for the volume(s) to be copied) write the pages you would like copied on the Photocopy Request Form.

Photographic reproductions:

Photographic reproductions may be provided from selected pages of books, manuscripts, or original photographs. Consult the staff member at the reference desk for the proper procedure.

A photographic reproduction, under normal circumstances, will take from 7 to 14 business days. Orders are placed on a while-you-wait basis but there is an additional fee for this service.

Scanning:

Requests for scanning should be made of the staff member at the reference desk. Every attempt will be made to complete scanning requests in a timely manner. Orders will not be completed on a while-you-wait basis. The normal turnaround time is 3 days. Large orders may take several days to process. Scanned items can be picked up or mailed; if mailed there is a shipping and handling fee.

The procedure for scanning reproduction is as follows:

1. Please complete the Scanning Request Form.
2. Please be sure archives staff is aware of what needs to be copied.
3. Please do not remove original material from folders. Turn the Request Slip (yellow form) perpendicular to the materials you would like scanned in the folder. This will ensure the materials remain in order.

Publication Procedures:

1. We request that citations be written as follows:

[collection name or book title], [name of curatorial unit, such as "Southern Labor Archives" or "Georgia Collections"], Special Collections Department, University Library, Georgia State University.

The curatorial units are: Southern Labor Archives; University Archives; Popular Music Collection; Georgia Documentation Project; Women's Collections; Rare Book Collection.

(A) In publications it is preferred that the credit line appear on the same or facing page as the illustration. When possible, each individual item should be credited where it appears.

(B) With media projects (including films, documentaries, and mixed media products), include credit with other sources of materials.

(C) With exhibitions, credit within exhibition area, preferably with each item that is used.

2. The researcher agrees not to reproduce copies as dust jackets, or end papers, or to use in an advertisement or commercial use of a similar nature, nor to mass reproduce, unless specifically authorized by the Archives.

3. The Archives requests one complimentary copy of the work in which the copies appear.

Please contact the Head of Special Collections with any questions concerning these procedures.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U. S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that use may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copy order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

CONDITIONS

1. The Special Collections Department will consider requests for reproduction of materials when copying can be done without injury to the material, does not violate donor agreements, and conforms to copyright statute.
2. Original materials from the Archives' collections will not be lent to researchers. The Archives will oversee production of copies for the use of researchers, and reserves the right to limit the number of copies made, to restrict the use or reproduction of rare or valuable materials, and to make special provisions for material involving unusual difficulty in copying. When copy negatives must be made, they remain the property of the Archives.
3. Materials which the Archives has obtained from other institutions or projects cannot be copied unless the researcher has obtained the permission of the original institution. The researcher assumes all responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise in copying audio-visual materials and in the use made of the copies.
4. Normal processing time for audio-visual duplication orders is 10 to 15 working days. The Archives requests that orders be placed a minimum of 10 days in advance whenever possible.
5. Arrangements must be made for payment of all fees before orders will be processed. Payment will be accepted in the form of cash, check or money order. Checks and money orders should be made payable to "GSU Library." Inter-departmental payments may be made via account transfer.
6. All digital images must contain the "watermark" of the Special Collections Department of the Georgia State University Library. This watermark may not be removed by the researcher without permission from the Special Collections Department.

7. We require that citations be written as follows:

The Georgia Government Documentation Project (GGDP) documents the state's political heritage through oral history interviews and collections of associated papers. The GGDP collection includes more than 250 interviews with former governors, legislators, women in politics, African-American political activists and leaders, journalists, and numerous other public figures. In addition to the interviews generated by the project, the GGDP actively collects interviews conducted by other scholars of Georgia politics.
