Ms. Bettianne C. Hart
Deputy District Attorney
Appeals Division
Office of the Fulton County District Attorney
136 Pryor Street, S.W., 3rd Floor
Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3477

Dear Ms. Hart,

As a response to your letter of January 7, 2003, William Martin, the Court Administrator/Clerk has asked that I send to you the attached report. This report is a listing of all the criminal appeals from cases in the Superior Court of Fulton County which were filed in this court in 2002. The listing includes from left to right the following information: the Court of Appeals case number, the trial court case number, our case classification code, and an abbreviated style of the case. These ninety appeals are 6.6% of the total criminal appeals filed in 2002.

In your letter, you also requested a listing of habeas corpus cases. Habeas cases are not within the jurisdiction of this Court, but rather are filed in the Supreme Court. Please contact Sherie Welch, Clerk of the Supreme Court, who can assist you with that information.

I hope this information will be useful to you. If you have any questions, feel free to call me.

Sincerely,

Holly K. O. Sparrow
Deputy Court Administrator

Dear Mr. Martin:

This letter is a follow-up to our phone conversation regarding the criminal cases filed in the Court of Appeals from the Fulton County Superior Court. Paul L. Howard, Jr., Fulton District Attorney and I are in the process of evaluating our appellate caseload for planning and forecasting staff needs. Of course, our situation is unique to Georgia because we handle all habeas actions filed from the federal penitentiary and felony appeals from Fulton County convictions whereas the State Attorney General defends appeals statewide.

Therefore, we are requesting a list of all habeas appeals and criminal case appeals filed from Fulton Superior Court for the calendar year, 2002. This will also help us to cross reference our pending cases. We would also like to know the percentage of all criminal cases filed in the Court of Appeals that came from this jurisdiction for the year.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

William L. Martin, III
Subject: Fulton County Caseload
Date: January 8, 2003

Attached please find a copy of the letter I received from Bettianne C. Hart regarding Fulton County's request for all criminal appeals from Fulton Superior Court. Obviously, habeas matters go to the Supreme Court. If you can accommodate Ms. Hart, let me know and I shall respond to her letter.

Thank you.

Dear Mr. Martin:

This letter is a follow-up to our phone conversation regarding the criminal cases filed in the Court of Appeals from the Fulton County Superior Court. Paul L. Howard, Jr., Fulton District Attorney and I are in the process of evaluating our appellate caseload for planning and forecasting staff needs. Of course, our situation is unique to Georgia because we handle all habeas actions filed from the federal penitentiary and felony appeals from Fulton County convictions whereas the State Attorney General defends appeals statewide.

Therefore, we are requesting a list of all habeas appeals and criminal case appeals filed from Fulton Superior Court for the calendar year, 2002. This will also help us to cross reference our pending cases. We would also like to know the percentage of all criminal cases filed in the Court of Appeals that came from this jurisdiction for the year.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Judge Blackburn:

Thank you for all of the work you and your staff did in compiling data and background information for Georgia's response to the Center for Digital Government's 2002 Digital State Survey. I understand that John Ruggeri was particularly helpful to Bridget Ferris of my staff in ensuring that the information was complete and accurate. Your staff's assistance helps us garner national recognition for your agency's efforts to use information technology to better serve Georgians.

I appreciate your helping us meet survey deadlines and gather the information needed to help promote Georgia's innovative use of technology. With your help, we are confident we will be able to show great strides in next year's survey. If you have any suggestions as to how to make the information gathering easier, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Larry J. Singer

Subject: Cases Involving Children and Families

Date: April 13, 2001

On May 3 I will be speaking to the Valdosta Bar Association at its annual Law Day event. This year's Law Day theme is "Protecting the Best Interests of Our Children." I would like to incorporate into my speech some statistics from our court filings showing the number of appeals we handle in child and family-related cases. These would include any cases coming from juvenile courts, such as delinquency cases and appeals of the termination of parental rights, as well as appeals from the superior courts in child custody, child molestation and abuse cases, and other cases involving crimes against children.

I would appreciate any information you can provide.

William L. Martin, II
Subject: 1999 Statistics

Attached please find a copy of the statistical information you provided me a couple of weeks ago. In looking at the "Additional Observation Material", I find that the number of dispositions of the direct appeals total only 84%. Also, the interlocutory and discretionary applications do not total 100%.

Specifically, I believe the 58% of all court decisions affirmed may be a little low.

Please check and call me if you have any questions.

COURT OF APPEALS CASELOAD

- Over the five-year period (1994-1998), cases filed have ranged from a high of 3,911 in 1994 to a low of 3,366 in 1998, so that the average rate of filings is 3,575 cases.
- The difference in the high and low numbers is 545 cases.
- The yearly variation is greater than 10% above and below the average of 3,575 cases.
- Total cases filed decreased from 3,513 filings in 1997 to 3,366 in 1998 representing a marginal decrease of 4%.
- Both direct and discretionary appeals declined by 4.6% and 4.8%, respectively.
- Decrease of 2.3% from the 3,391 cases disposed in 1997 to the 3,314 cases disposed in 1998.
- Most of this decrease can be attributed to a 36.8% decrease in the number of cases disposed by Rule 36 and a 23.1% decrease in the number of discretionary applications transferred to the Supreme Court.

The following appear to be approved grounds for expedited treatment of appeals:

- 1) appeal bonds (Internal Operations Manual, § VI, pg. 14),
- 2) appellant incarcerated (OCGA § 5-6-43 (c)),
- 3) child custody (IOM, § XV.P, pg. 34),
- 4) Parental Notification Act (Court of Appeals Rule 45),
- 5) civil cases in which the State is a plaintiff (OCGA § 9-10-1),
- 6) emergencies (Court of Appeals Rule 40 (b)),
- 7) cases in which motions for expedited treatment have been granted.

add to this list appeals from denial of supersedeas bonds in civil cases. Per Judge Busby 4-11-96.

- (3) "an important right might be lost if review had to await final judgment."
